PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1999

We sent you this proxy statement because the Board of Directors of Labor Ready, Inc., a Washington corporation is soliciting your proxy to vote your shares at the 1999 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company. The annual meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. (Pacific time) on Wednesday, August 4, 1999, at the Best Western Executive Inn, 5700 Pacific Highway East, Fife, Washington, and at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement contains information that we are required to provide to you under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and that is designed to assist you in voting your shares. We are sending this proxy statement to the holders of common and preferred stock of the Company.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES. If you execute a proxy, you will retain the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted. You may revoke or change your proxy before it is voted by: (i) sending a written revocation to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at 1016 South 28(th) Street, Tacoma, Washington 98409; (ii) submitting a proxy with a later date; (iii) delivering a written request in person to return the executed proxy; or (iv) attending the annual meeting and voting at the annual meeting. Your right to revoke your proxy is not limited by or subject to compliance with a specified formal procedure, but you should give written notice to the Secretary of the Company at or before the annual meeting so that the number of shares represented by proxy can be recomputed.

VOTING OF PROXIES. If you properly execute and return the enclosed proxy card, the individuals named on the proxy card (your proxies) will vote your shares in the manner you indicate. We urge you to specify your choices by marking the appropriate box on the enclosed proxy card; if you sign and return the proxy card without indicating your instructions, your shares will be voted FOR THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS NOMINATED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND FOR PROPOSALS 2 AND 3, and with respect to any other business that may come before the meeting, as recommended by the Board of Directors. You may vote for, against, or abstain from voting on, any matter that may properly come before the meeting.

QUORUM. A quorum is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast at the annual meeting are present in person or by proxy, a quorum will exist. Shares represented by proxies containing an abstention as to any matter will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Similarly, shares held by brokers or nominees for the accounts of others as to which voting instructions have not been given ("Broker Non-Votes") will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum.

EFFECT OF ABSTENTIONS AND BROKER NON-VOTES. Election of directors and approval of the amendment to the Company's Articles require the affirmative vote of the shares represented at the annual meeting. Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes will have no effect in the election of directors. Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes will have the effect of a "no" vote as to the proposed amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

RECORD DATE. Shareholders of record at the close of business on June 24, 1999 are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. On June 15, 1999, the Company had 42,898,434 shares of common stock outstanding, and there were 6,485,696 shares of preferred stock outstanding. The number of shares outstanding reflects a 3 for 2 stock split effective on June 24, 1999 (effected as a dividend of one share of common stock or preferred stock for every two shares of common stock or preferred stock held), and payable on July 12, 1999. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote and each share of preferred stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote.

DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY. If any nominee for director is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, or if any matters not specified in this proxy statement come before the meeting, eligible shares will be voted as specified by the named proxies pursuant to discretionary authority granted in the proxy. At the time this proxy statement was printed, we were not aware of any other matters to be voted on.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES. Proxies may be solicited by officers, directors and regular supervisory and executive employees of the Company, none of whom will receive any additional compensation for their services.

MAILING AND FORWARDING OF PROXY MATERIALS. On June 30, 1999, we first began mailing this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card to shareholders. We will arrange with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation material to certain beneficial owners of the common stock and will reimburse such brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that they incur as a result of forwarding the proxy materials.

PROPOSAL 2. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Board of Directors has proposed an amendment to its articles of incorporation that would limit the personal monetary liability of directors for their actions as a director to the maximum extent permitted by Washington law. The text of the amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation is attached as Exhibit A.

Washington law provides that, if authorized by a company's articles of incorporation, a director will not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director. A director will be liable for (a) intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director; (b) dividends and distributions that are paid in violation of Washington law; and (c) transactions in which the director personally receives a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

The Washington legislature adopted the statute in 1989 in response to concerns that certain events had resulted in a significant increase in the risk of liability encountered by directors and that companies were experiencing significant difficulties in retaining outside directors and attracting qualified candidates as directors. The composition of the Company's board of directors, including its two independent directors, has changed little since the Company became listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market in 1996 and its subsequent listing on the New York Stock Exchange in 1998. The Company is engaged in identifying and recruiting prospective candidates for its board of directors. The board of directors believes the Company must raise the standard of protection for directors up to the level authorized by Washington law in order to attract highly qualified, independent directors.

The Company has adopted some provisions to provide directors with protection. For example, the Company is authorized by its articles of incorporation to indemnify each director consistent with Washington law. Similarly, the Company has provided a limitation of monetary liability for directors in its bylaws and has obtained officers and directors liability insurance. While those provisions provide directors with a significant degree of protection, given the dramatic changes in the Company's operations and business activities in recent years (e.g., during the past five years the number of dispatch offices has increased from 51 to 683, while revenues have increased from $39 million to $607 million), the board of directors believes that the Company should provide its directors with the maximum protection authorized by Washington law.

Since the amendment would, if adopted, limit the liability of the current directors, the current directors may be deemed to have a "conflicting interest" under Washington law. AS A RESULT, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ARE NOT MAKING A RECOMMENDATION TO THE COMPANY'S SHAREHOLDERS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL OF PROPOSAL 2.

PROPOSAL 3. RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

On September 22, 1997, the Company engaged Arthur Andersen, LLP ("Arthur Andersen") as principal accountants for the year ending December 31, 1997. Arthur Andersen replaced BDO Seidman LLP ("BDO") as of the date reported above. The change in the Company's independent auditor was the result of a mutually agreeable decision between the Company and BDO to discontinue their relationship, which resulted in BDO submitting a resignation letter to the Company, which the Company received on September 18, 1997. The Company solicited a formal proposal from Arthur Andersen due to Arthur Andersen's excellent reputation and expertise in the temporary employment industry, numbering among its clients some of the largest companies in the industry. The Company's Audit Committee approved the engagement of Arthur Andersen on September 22, 1997.

During the two most recent fiscal years there have been no disagreements with BDO on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure nor any reportable events. Arthur Andersen's report on the consolidated financial statements for the past two years contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors has appointed Arthur Andersen to serve as the independent auditors of the Company for the calendar year ending December 31, 1999. Representatives of Arthur Andersen will be present at the annual meeting to make a statement if they desire to do so and respond to appropriate questions by shareholders. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting is required for the ratification of the Board's selection of Arthur Andersen as the Company's independent auditors for the calendar year ending December 31, 1999. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF ARTHUR ANDERSEN LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The names, ages and positions of the non-director executive officers of the Company are listed below along with their business experience during the past five years. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Each nonemployee director receives an annual retainer of $20,000, $1,000 for attending each regular or special Board of Directors meeting, and $500 for attending each assigned committee meeting. The Board of Directors met four times in fiscal year 1998. The 1998 Stock Option and Incentive Plan provides for the annual grant to directors of the Company of a nonqualified option for 2,000 shares on the first business day of each January, vesting after 6 months of service as a director, and exercisable at the fair market value of the Company's common stock. In addition, the Board of Directors may grant a nonqualified option to a director upon his or her initial election or appointment to the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION(*)

The Company's executive compensation is determined by a compensation committee comprised of two members of the Board of Directors, Messrs. McChesney and Sullivan. The philosophy of the Company's executive compensation program is that compensation of executive officers should be directly and materially linked both to the operating performance of the Company and to the interests of Shareholders.

Annual cash compensation, together with stock options, is designed to attract and retain qualified executives and to ensure that such executives have a continuing stake in the long term success of the Company. Beginning in 1998, the Compensation Committee developed more formal policies with respect to executive compensation through the use of a consulting firm. In 1998, the Board of Directors approved guidelines for annual grants of stock options to management and administrative personnel. Under the plan as approved, each of the executive officers of the Company receives a grant of 20,000 options per year, subject to annual approval by the Compensation Committee.

With respect to compensation for the Company's CEO, base salary for 1998 and prior years has been set by a contract that expired December 31, 1998. The Company and Mr. Welstad have executed a new five-year contract as described below. With respect to both base salary and incentive compensation, the Compensation Committee believes that there is substantial basis for increasing the CEO's compensation. The Company's common stock price has, as illustrated by the Performance Graph below, increased dramatically in the past four and a half years (more than 1,400%), many times the Company's peer group and the Nasdaq Composite. In addition, revenue growth during the last year and last five years increased 81% and 1,458%, respectively, while earnings have increased in the same periods 184% and 2,224%, respectively.

The Compensation Committee believes that, as the Company's single largest shareholder, the CEO's interests are already aligned with the interests of all shareholders. However, based on the Company's outstanding performance for the last year and the prior five years, the Committee believes that there is a significant basis for increasing the CEO's compensation. The Committee would view favorably increasing the CEO's cash compensation through salary adjustments or bonuses or granting additional stock-based compensation, or both. Instead, the CEO has requested, and the Committee has approved, (1) entering into a split dollar insurance policy with a trust for his estate planning purposes; and (2) a small increase in his salary.

With respect to other executive officers, the Compensation Committee sets salary based on recommendations of the CEO, unless the officer's salary is established by written contract. With respect to officers that have recently joined the Company, the recommendations are based on the CEO's negotiations with the officer as necessary to attract such persons to become officers of the Company. With respect to other officers, especially the CEO's son, the Compensation Committee reviews the salaries for officers with comparable duties at the median of companies of comparable revenue size in the Pacific Northwest. These companies are selected informally without the use of a compensation consultant. Annual salary increases are typically modest, except to reflect changes in responsibilities.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS:

On June 8, 1999, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Glenn Welstad, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, which provides for annual compensation of $500,000, payable not less frequently than monthly. In addition, the employment agreement provides that the Board of Directors may increase Mr. Welstad's compensation and award him such bonuses as the Board sees fit, based on Mr. Welstad's performance, and the overall performance of the Company. The term of Mr. Welstad's employment agreement runs through December 31, 2003. The agreement also provides that Mr. Welstad will receive reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that he incurs in connection with his services for the Company, and the Company will pay a portion of the premiums due on a life insurance policy on the life of Mr. Welstad and his spouse. Mr. Welstad is also entitled to all benefits offered generally to employees of the Company.

In March 1997, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Ralph E. Peterson, the Company's former Executive Vice President--Corporate and Business Development, which provided for annual compensation of $20,000 per month at inception of the agreement, subject to annual increases on the anniversary date of the agreement at the discretion of the Board of Directors. In addition, the employment agreement provided for a bonus, as determined by the compensation committee, based on Mr. Peterson's performance, and the overall performance of the Company. The agreement provided Mr. Peterson with options to purchase 506,250 of the Company's common stock at its fair market value at date of grant of $3.97. 101,250 of the options vested on the date of grant and the balance in equal annual amounts to 2000. Effective December 31, 1998, in connection with his retirement from full time employment, Mr. Peterson and the Company agreed to terminate his employment agreement and Mr. Peterson resigned his duties as Executive Vice President Corporate and Business Development. Effective March 12, 1999, Mr. Peterson resigned as Director. The Company has entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Peterson through April 30, 2002 which provides for a salary of $2,000 per month and continuation of the vesting schedule for options which had been previously granted. Mr. Peterson will continue to assist the company with business development and other special projects as directed by its President and CEO.

In August 1997, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Joseph P. Sambataro, Jr., the Company's Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Assistant Secretary, which provides for annual compensation of $13,500 per month, subject to annual increases on the anniversary date of the agreement at the discretion of the Board of Directors. In addition, the employment agreement provides for a bonus, as determined by the compensation committee, based on Mr. Sambataro's performance, and the overall performance of the Company. The agreement provides Mr. Sambataro with options to purchase 405,000 shares of the Company's common stock at its fair market value at date of grant of $3.70. 101,250 of the options vest on the date of grant and 50,625 options vest semi-annually to 2000. The agreement expires in 2001 unless extended by mutual agreement between Mr. Sambataro and the Board of Directors or is terminated pursuant to its terms.
