Introduction

Labor Ready, Inc., founded in Washington in 1989, is a leading national provider of temporary workers for manual labor jobs. Our customers are primarily businesses in the freight handling, warehousing, landscaping, construction and light manufacturing industries. These businesses require workers for lifting, hauling, cleaning, assembling, digging, painting and other types of manual or unskilled work.

We grew rapidly from 8 dispatch offices in 1991 to 852 dispatch offices in 2000, and we had 756 dispatch offices as of December 31, 2001. All of the growth in dispatch offices was achieved by opening Company-owned locations rather than through acquisitions. We have dispatch offices in markets throughout the United States, Canada, United Kingdom and Puerto Rico. In 2001, the average cost to open a new dispatch office was approximately $30,000 and dispatch offices opened in 2001 typically generated revenues sufficient to cover their operating costs within approximately 18 to 24 months.

Our revenues have grown from $6.0 million in 1991 to $976.6 million in 2000 and were $917.0 million for fiscal year 2001. The average revenue per dispatch office for offices in operation at the end of the year and open for more than one full year was approximately $1.2 million in 2001 and $1.4 million in 2000.

Industry Overview

The temporary staffing industry has grown rapidly in recent years as companies have used temporary employees to control personnel costs and to meet fluctuating personnel needs. Historically, the demand for temporary workers has been driven primarily by the need to satisfy peak production requirements and to temporarily replace full-time employees absent due to illness, vacation or abrupt termination. More recently, competitive pressures have forced businesses to focus on reducing costs, including converting fixed, permanent labor costs to variable or flexible costs. The use of temporary workers typically shifts employment costs and risks, such as workers' compensation and unemployment insurance and the possible adverse effects of changing employment regulations, to temporary staffing companies, which can better manage those costs and risks. In addition, through the use of temporary employees, businesses avoid the inconvenience and expense of hiring and firing regular employees.

We believe the short-term, light industrial segment of the temporary staffing industry is highly fragmented and presents opportunities for larger, well capitalized companies to compete effectively, mainly through systems and procedures which efficiently process a high volume of transactions, coordinate multi-location activities and manage workers' compensation costs.

Company Strategy

Our goal is to maintain and enhance our stakeholder and shareholder value. Key elements of our strategy to achieve this objective are as follows:

- Improve Revenue and Profit in all Offices. Our strategy is to increase revenues and profits in each dispatch office by expanding sales to existing customers and by aggressively expanding the number and mix of customers served. We recently implemented a comprehensive new sales training program for our dispatch office managers and staff. We coordinate sales and marketing strategies designed to support the sales efforts of our field personnel, including targeted direct mail, telemarketing and special promotional programs. Our National Accounts staff focuses on new and existing large accounts, providing a single source of customer care for our large regional and national customers.

We emphasize excellence in customer service and maintain a commitment to providing a superior quality of service through policies such as opening offices no later than 5:30 a.m., extending hours of operation where the market demands, and maintaining a Customer Care Hotline and staff to respond quickly to the needs of our customers. One of our competitive advantages is that we are able to provide workers on short notice, usually the same day as requested. We also offer a "satisfaction guaranteed" policy.

We are committed to only opening offices that can quickly reach or exceed performance standards, and closing offices that are under-performing. This strategy is calculated to maximize profitability by increasing average sales per dispatch office. We are also introducing a revised compensation program for dispatch office managers which will tie bonus eligibility to the profitability of the office, rather than sales and gross profits only.

- Grow Through Strategic Methods of Expansion. The recent difficulties in the U.S. economy and the resulting impact on our sales in 2001 caused us to focus on improving efficiencies throughout the company rather than aggressive expansion. We expect that these efficiencies, applied in an improved economy, will produce the capital resources necessary for renewed expansion. We remain committed to overseas expansion — we anticipate that 7 of the 10 new dispatch offices we expect to open in 2002 will be in the United Kingdom. We will also continue to evaluate acquisition opportunities within and complimentary to our market niche.
- Improve Operating Efficiencies and Reduce Operating Costs. Due to extensive fragmentation in the short-term temporary labor market, we believe our national presence provides us with key operating efficiencies, competitive advantages and access to capital markets to provide needed working capital. We have standardized the operation, general design, staffing and equipment of our dispatch offices. In addition, we have designed and implemented a proprietary information system that efficiently manages an extensive, Company-wide employee, payroll, sales and customer database and provides management with valuable, timely management reporting.
- Aggressively Recruit Temporary Workers. We are committed to supplying motivated workers to our customers. Most workers find our "Work Today, Paid Today" policy appealing and arrive at the dispatch office early in the morning motivated to put in a good day's work and receive their pay at the end of the day. We have installed a cash dispensing machine ("CDM") in most of our dispatch offices. With the CDMs, workers have a choice of receiving their wages via a daily paycheck or in cash. For workers choosing to use the CDM, we retain the change on each worker's daily pay plus $1 for the service. Management believes the CDM program enhances our ability to attract temporary workers. In 2001, we issued approximately 8.7 million payroll payments in the form of either check or cash to our temporary workers.

Dispatch Office Expansion

Our rapid expansion from 1991 to 2000 resulted in our establishing a national "footprint" with a presence in all 50 states, which we believe provides us a significant competitive advantage. Last year we undertook a program of consolidating certain offices to achieve increased efficiency without abandoning markets. This consolidation process resulted in our opening 32 dispatch offices and closing 92 in 2001, for a net decrease of 60 offices, leaving us with 756 dispatch offices as of December 31, 2001. The following table sets forth the number and country of dispatch offices open at the end of each of the last five years. The information below does not include five Labor Ready franchised dispatch offices.

We currently anticipate opening approximately 10 new dispatch offices during 2002, although additional offices may be opened if required to meet a specific demand or to take advantage of new opportunities. We will continue to analyze individual dispatch office performance, which may lead to additional dispatch office closures in 2002. We analyze acquisition opportunities, and may from time to time pursue acquisitions in certain circumstances and may also alter the pace of our expansion based on future developments and market conditions.

Economics of Dispatch Offices. We have standardized the process of opening dispatch offices. In 2001, the average aggregate cost of opening a new dispatch office decreased to approximately $30,000 as compared to approximately $45,000 in 2000, due primarily to our redistribution of previously purchased CDMs from our closed branches. Approximately $13,000 of these costs includes salaries, recruiting, testing, training, lease and other related costs; the remaining $17,000 includes computer systems and other equipment related costs, leasehold improvements and related equipment. These costs are not expected to increase significantly in 2002. New dispatch offices are expected to generate revenue sufficient to cover their operating costs within 18 to 24 months. On average, the volume necessary for profitable operations is approximately $12,000 per week. Dispatch offices in operation at the end of the year and open for at least one full year generated average annual revenue of approximately $1.2 million in 2001.

Criteria for New Dispatch Offices. Labor Ready identifies desirable areas for locating new dispatch offices with an economic model that analyzes the potential supply of temporary workers and customer demand based on a zip code resolution of employment figures, demographics and the relative distance to the nearest existing Labor Ready dispatch office. In addition, we locate dispatch offices in areas convenient for our temporary workers, which are on or near public transportation, and have parking available. After we establish a dispatch office in a metropolitan area, we usually cluster additional locations within the same area. Multiple locations in a market reduce both opening costs and operating risk for new dispatch offices because direct mail and other advertising costs are spread among more dispatch offices and because the new dispatch office benefits from existing customer relationships and established Labor Ready brand recognition.

Dispatch Office Management. We believe that the key factor determining the success of a dispatch office is identifying and retaining an effective dispatch office manager. Each dispatch office manager has primary responsibility for managing the operations of the dispatch office, including the recruiting and daily dispatch of temporary workers, sales, customer service and accounts receivable collection. We pay monthly bonuses to qualifying dispatch office managers based on accounts receivable collections and gross margins during the month. We are currently testing a modified version of this bonus program which ties bonus eligibility for dispatch office managers to the overall profitability of the office, rather than collections and gross margins only.

Each dispatch office manager has primary responsibility for customer service and the dispatch office's sales efforts, including identifying and soliciting local businesses likely to have a need for temporary manual workers. Our experience is that certain types of individuals are better suited to perform the critical management functions necessary for the dispatch office to generate the revenues required to achieve profitability, regardless of the size of the metropolitan area. We commit substantial resources to the training, development, and operational support of our dispatch office managers.

Operations

Dispatch Offices. Typically, workers come to the dispatch office in the morning to check on the availability of jobs and to indicate their availability for assignment. During the early morning hours, the dispatch office manager and an assistant coordinate incoming customer work orders, assign the available workers to the job openings for the day, and assist as necessary in arranging transportation to the job site. Most job openings are requested on short notice, often the same day as the workers are needed at the job site. Work assignments are filled on a nondiscriminatory basis, with the dispatch office manager endeavoring to match customer needs with available workers.

Prior to dispatch, a branch employee makes sure workers have the basic safety equipment required for the job, such as boots, back braces, hard hats, or safety goggles, all of which are provided at no charge to the worker and the customer. The customer provides additional safety and other equipment, if required.

The workers are provided with a work order, which is endorsed by the customer to confirm work performance, and which is presented at the dispatch office in order to receive payment for the hours worked. Workers are generally paid daily by check, but with the addition of a CDM at most dispatch offices, workers have the choice of being paid each day in cash. Computer systems at each dispatch office perform the calculations necessary to determine the wages, less taxes and applicable withholdings, and print security-controlled checks, which are distributed to each worker. If the worker requests, the system instead prints a payroll voucher which contains a unique security code. The worker enters the code into the CDM and the net pay is disbursed, less the change and $1 transaction fee for the CDM service. Revenues from the CDMs are substantially offset by the direct and indirect costs of the CDM program. However, the primary purpose of the CDM program is to provide an additional service to our temporary workers which most of our competitors do not offer and which we believe enhances our ability to attract temporary workers.

Dispatch offices generally open by 5:30 a.m. and generally remain open until the last temporary worker is paid. Dispatch offices are generally staffed with at least two full-time employees, including the dispatch office manager and a customer service representative. Dispatch office managers manage the daily dispatch of temporary workers, and are responsible for monitoring and collecting receivables, managing the credit application process for each customer, inspecting customer job sites for site safety, and managing the sales and marketing efforts of the dispatch office.

Employment applications are taken throughout the day for potential new temporary employees. Applications are used to facilitate workers' compensation safeguards and quality control systems by permitting us to test for alcohol or drugs in case of a work-related illness or injury, to establish various other conditions of employment, and to comply with applicable immigration requirements.

Customers. Our customers require workers for lifting, hauling, cleaning, assembling, digging, painting and other types of manual or unskilled work. Our customers are primarily businesses in the freight handling, warehousing, landscaping, construction, light manufacturing, retail, wholesale, sanitation, printing, and hospitality industries.

New dispatch offices initially target businesses in their market area with direct mail and telemarketing campaigns. Dispatch office managers, the regional or local sales force and telemarketers are responsible for following up the marketing campaigns with telephone or personal calls. Many customers have elements of seasonality in their workflow, especially customers in the construction and landscaping industries. We currently derive our business from a large number of customers, and are not dependent on any single large customer for more than 2% of our revenues. Our ten largest customers accounted for 4.3% of total revenues in 2001 and 4.3% of total revenues in 2000. While a single dispatch office may derive a substantial percentage of its revenues from a single customer, the loss of that customer would not have a significant impact on our revenues. During 2001, we provided temporary workers to over 300,000 customers.

Many customers use Labor Ready to screen prospective employees for future permanent hires. Because we do not charge a fee if a customer hires our worker, customers on occasion send prospective employees to us with a specific request for temporary assignment to their business. Customers thereby have the opportunity to observe the prospective employee in an actual working situation, minimizing the expense of employee turnover and personnel agency fees.

Credit and Collections. We have implemented an automated credit and collections system that allows each dispatch office to establish a credit limit for new customers by telephonically accessing a computer based credit system. Initial credit limits are based on a credit-scoring matrix we developed. The credit department, using other credit reporting agencies, bank/trade references and balance sheet analysis, reviews and approves additional credit extensions beyond those recommended by this system. Initial credit limits range from COD to $100,000 and once a customer has reached 75% of its credit limit, the customer screen on our system has a red warning to alert the dispatch office to monitor more closely the activity of the customer.

Sales and Marketing. Marketing is accomplished primarily through telemarketing and direct-mail campaigns, yellow-page advertising, personal sales contacts, word of mouth, and billboard advertising. Each dispatch office is responsible for its own sales and marketing efforts in its local market area in coordination with corporate marketing and advertising. The dispatch office manager is primarily responsible for sales and customer service, with all branch employees being involved in sales and customer relations. We purchase a direct marketing database, and from a centralized direct mail department, conduct an intensive direct-mail campaign in the local market area of each dispatch office. For new dispatch offices, the direct-mail campaign targets a broad range of businesses in its local market area. Follow-up mailings target businesses in our traditional market niche. Follow-up telephone and personal calls on qualified leads are made by the dispatch office manager or a sales representative.

When entering new markets, we allow for an initial advertising budget to generate an awareness of the new dispatch office. When opening additional offices as warranted, based on area demographics, we can also expand and coordinate our marketing efforts to the benefit of other established offices in the local area.

Temporary Workers. Most workers find our “Work Today, Paid Today” policy appealing and arrive at the dispatch office early in the morning ready to put in a good day’s work and receive a paycheck or a CDM voucher for cash at the end of the day. The majority of the workers are male and most are between the ages of 18 and 40 and live in low-income neighborhoods.

Our daily pool of temporary workers at each dispatch office generally numbers between 40 and 200, depending upon the time of year. Because of increasing diversification of our customer base and a wider dispersion of dispatch offices in different geographic areas of the United States, we are less dependent on weather than in our early years. Good weather, nevertheless, brings incrementally more job orders and workers. Consequently, we are busiest in the late spring, summer and early fall.

Under our “satisfaction guaranteed” policy, unsatisfactory workers are promptly replaced and the customer is not charged for their time if the customer notifies us within the first two hours of work. Employees who receive two complaints from customers are generally reprimanded or terminated. We will immediately terminate any employee who agrees to take a work order and does not report at the customer’s job site. Any use of obscene language, alcohol or drugs on the dispatch office premises or at the customers’ job sites is grounds for immediate dismissal.

We withhold FICA and federal, state, and, where applicable, city and county income taxes from our temporary workers’ wages for disbursement to governmental agencies. Additionally, we maintain federal and state unemployment insurance, and workers’ compensation coverage for our temporary employees.

Recruitment of Temporary Workers. We attract our pool of temporary workers through billboard advertisements, flyers, newspaper advertisements, dispatch office displays, and word of mouth. We believe our strategy of locating dispatch offices in areas convenient for our workers, with ready access to public transportation, is particularly important in attracting workers.

Our “Work Today, Paid Today” policy is prominently displayed at most dispatch offices and, in our experience, is a highly effective method of attracting temporary workers. Our ability to pay workers’ wages in cash through the use of the CDMs is an additional attraction. Temporary workers are also aware that we don’t charge a fee if a customer decides to offer them a full-time position. The possibility of locating a full-time position serves as an added incentive to our workers.

We experience from time to time, during peak periods, shortages of available temporary workers. Dispatch offices with a shortage of workers attempt to fill work orders by asking temporary workers to inform friends, relatives and neighbors of job openings and by identifying prospective workers from our employee database. On occasion, work orders requiring large numbers of temporary workers will be filled through coordination with other local dispatch offices.

Management, Employees and Training. At December 31, 2001, we employed approximately 250 administrative and executive staff in the corporate office, and approximately 2,600 people as supervisors, dispatch office managers, customer service representatives, district managers, area directors and support staff. Dispatch office managers report to district managers who in turn report to area directors. For positions above dispatch office manager, our recruiting focus is on hiring management and supervisory personnel with experience in managing multi-location operations.

After extensive interviews and tests, prospective district and dispatch office managers undergo approximately one week of training at our training center which is located at the corporate office in Tacoma, Washington and four weeks of on-the-job training at a dispatch office. The training center is charged with providing the managers with the skills necessary for operating a dispatch office. Staffed by experienced training professionals, the training center has developed a curriculum, training manuals, and instruction modules for the training program, which include rigorous sessions on topics such as marketing and direct mail, credit and collections, payroll and personnel policies, workers’ compensation management and safety. Customer service representatives receive on-the-job training at the branch where they work, supplemented by a computerized training program.

Management Information Systems. We have developed our own proprietary system to process all required credit, billing, collection, temporary worker payroll and related payroll information for tax returns, together with other information and reporting systems necessary for the management of hundreds of thousands of workers and staff in multiple locations. The system maintains all of our key databases, from the tracking of work orders to payroll processing to maintaining worker records. The current system regularly exchanges all point of sale information between the corporate headquarters and the dispatch offices, including customer credit information and outstanding receivable balances. Dispatch offices can run a variety of reports on demand, such as receivables aging, margin reports, and customer activity reports. Area directors and district managers are able to monitor their territories from remote locations. We believe our proprietary software system provides us with significant competitive advantages over competitors that utilize less sophisticated systems.

Our system also provides us with key internal controls. All work order tickets are entered into the system at the dispatch office level. No payroll check can be issued at a dispatch office without a corresponding work ticket on the computer system. When a payroll check or CDM voucher is issued, the customer’s weekly invoice and the dispatch office receivables ledger are automatically updated. Printed checks have watermarks and computer-generated signatures that are difficult to duplicate. All cash receipts are received in lockbox accounts and are matched to customers’ receivable records using an automated data capture system.

Workers’ Compensation Program. We provide workers’ compensation insurance for our temporary workers and regular employees. For workers’ compensation claims originating in the majority of states, we have purchased a deductible insurance policy. Under terms of the policy, our workers’ compensation exposure is limited to a deductible amount per occurrence and a maximum aggregate stop-loss limit. Should any single occurrence exceed the deductible amount, all losses and expenses beyond the deductible amount are paid by independent insurance companies unrelated to us. Similarly, should the total of paid losses related to any one year period exceed the maximum aggregate stop-loss limit for that year, all losses beyond the maximum aggregate stop-loss limit are paid by independent insurance companies unrelated to us.

For workers’ compensation claims originating in Washington, Ohio, West Virginia, Canada and Puerto Rico, we pay workers’ compensation insurance premiums as required by government administered programs. The insurance premiums are established by each jurisdiction, generally based upon the job classification of the insured workers and our previous claims experience. For workers’ compensation claims originating in the United Kingdom, we have purchased an employers’ liability insurance policy.

We establish our reserve for workers’ compensation claims using actuarial estimates of the future cost of claims and related expenses that have been reported but not settled, and that have been incurred but not reported. Adjustments to the claims reserve are charged or credited to expense in the periods in which they occur.

We maintain a risk management department at our corporate headquarters to manage our insurers, third party claims administrators and medical service providers and to oversee our safety programs. We employ claims coordinators to reduce wage-loss compensation claims. The claims coordinators manage the acceptance, processing and final resolution of claims and administer our return to work program, wherein workers are employed at the local dispatch office or on customer assignments that require minimal physical exertion. We have an on-line connection with our third party administrator that allows the claims coordinators to maintain visibility of all claims, manage their progress and generate required management information.

Government Regulations

Safety Programs. We are subject to a number of state and federal statutes and administrative regulations pertaining to the safety of our workers. These laws generally require us to provide general safety awareness training and certain safety equipment to our workers. In most jurisdictions, when our temporary workers are on a customer's jobsite they are generally considered the customer's employees for purposes of site-specific safety standards compliance. Under Occupational Safety and Health Administration ("OSHA") regulations, responsibility for recording jobsite injuries to our temporary workers lies with our customers.

We continue to emphasize safety awareness by training our management employees, office staff and temporary workers, issuing safety equipment, monitoring job sites, and communicating with customers to promote job site safety. Each district maintains a safety committee which meets regularly to review safety issues and policies. Temporary workers are trained in safety procedures primarily by viewing safety tapes, reviewing a safety manual and completing a safety test at the beginning of their employment. Bulletin boards with safety-related posters are prominently displayed.

We maintain our own inventory of safety equipment at each dispatch office. Standard equipment includes hard hats, metal-toed boots, gloves, back braces, earplugs, and safety goggles. Equipment is checked out to workers as appropriate. All construction jobs require steel-toed boots and a hard hat. The dispatch office manager ensures that workers take basic safety equipment to job sites.

Dispatch office personnel are trained to discuss job safety parameters with customers on incoming work order requests. Managers conduct job site visits for new customer job orders and periodic "spot checks" of existing customers to review safety conditions at job sites. Workers are encouraged to report unsafe working conditions to us.

Wage and Hour Regulation. We are required to comply with applicable state and federal wage and hour laws. These laws require us to pay our employees minimum wage and overtime at applicable rates. When our workers are employed on public works projects we are generally required to pay prevailing wages and to comply with additional reporting obligations.

Proposed New Regulation. In 2001 and 2002, we have seen an increased level of activity in various state legislatures with respect to proposed legislation which could affect our business. This proposed legislation, much of which is backed by certain parties whose interests are adverse to ours, includes provisions such as a requirement that our temporary workers receive the same pay and benefits as our customers' regular employees, prohibitions on fees charged in connection with our CDMs, and a requirement that our customers provide workers compensation insurance for our temporary workers. We take a very active role in opposing such legislation and in informing policy makers as to the social and economic benefits of our business. None of these proposed bills has yet been enacted into law. However, we cannot guarantee that any such bills will not be enacted, in which event demand for our services may be adversely affected.

Competition

The short-term, manual labor sector of the temporary services industry is highly fragmented and highly competitive, with limited barriers to entry. A large percentage of temporary staffing companies serving this sector of the industry are local operations with fewer than five offices. Within local or regional markets, these firms actively compete with us for business. The primary bases of competition among local firms are price, service, and the ability to provide the requested amount of workers on time. While entry into the market has limited barriers, lack of working capital frequently limits growth of smaller competitors.

Although there are several large full-service and specialized temporary labor companies competing in national, regional and local markets, those companies have not yet aggressively expanded in our market segment. However, many of these competitors have substantially greater financial and marketing resources than we do. One or more of these competitors may decide at any time to enter or expand their existing activities in the short-term, light industrial market and provide new and increased competition to us. We believe that, among the larger competitors, the primary competitive factors in obtaining and retaining customers are the cost of temporary labor, the quality of the temporary workers provided, the responsiveness of the temporary labor company, and the number and location of offices. The presence of one or more temporary service competitors in a particular market can create significant pricing pressure and this pricing pressure could adversely impact profit margins.

Trademarks

Our business is not presently dependent on any patents, licenses, franchises, or concessions. "Labor Ready," and the service marks "Work Today, Paid Today" and "Work Today, Cash Today" are registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. We have also been granted a patent by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for the system of controlling a network of CDMs for the disbursement of payroll.

Item 2. Properties

We lease virtually all of our dispatch offices. Under most of these leases, we have the right to terminate the lease on 90 days notice and upon payment of three months rent. A small percentage of leases provide for a minimum one-year term.

In 2001, we sold a 24,000 square foot building and a 44,000 square foot office building with an adjoining 10,000 square foot warehouse, which had served as our corporate headquarters and administrative offices in Tacoma, Washington until March 2001. In March 2001, we moved into a company owned 157,000 square foot office building with an attached parking garage in downtown Tacoma, Washington, which serves as our headquarters. We also own a dispatch office in Tacoma. Management believes all of our facilities are currently suitable for their intended use.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

From time to time we are the subject of routine compliance audits by federal, state and local authorities relating to a variety of regulations including wage and hour laws, taxes, workers compensation, immigration and safety. We are also subject to legal proceedings in the ordinary course of our operations from time to time.

On July 19, 2000, Dale Kindle and Levoyd Williams filed an action in Georgia State Court, Fulton County. The suit was later amended, adding plaintiffs Quinton McGee and Jimmy T. Stringer (the "Kindle Litigation"). On August 17, 2000, Curtis Adkins filed an action in West Virginia State Court, Kanawha County (the "Adkins Litigation"). On October 3, 2000, Willie Wilkerson, Marco Medina and Arthur Demarchis filed an action in California State Court, Santa Clara County (the "Wilkerson Litigation"), and Anthony Flynn, Robert Hampton and Eugene Tonissen filed an action in New York State Court, Kings County (the "Flynn Litigation"). On February 14, 2001, Allen Yarbrough, Armando Ramirez, Phyllis Stennis, Earl Levels and Maurice Johnson filed an action in California State Court, Alameda County (the "Yarbrough Litigation").

The Kindler, Wilkerson and Flynn Litigation allege violations of state law in connection with the fees charged by us for voluntary use of the CDMs. The Kindler Litigation also alleges violations of state law in allegedly charging workers transportation and equipment rental fees and in purportedly failing to obtain consent of workers to exposure to hazardous chemicals. The Adkins Litigation and Yarbrough Litigation allege violation of federal or state wage and hour laws for failing to pay workers for all hours worked. In each case, the plaintiffs are present or former workers for us and are seeking unspecified damages and certification of a class of workers. Except for the Adkins Litigation, the actions also request injunctive relief.

On January 26, 2001, the court in the Wilkerson Litigation sustained our demurrer on all counts, dismissing the plaintiffs' lawsuit in its entirety. On February 5, 2001, the plaintiffs filed an amended complaint in an effort to revive their claims.

On September 28, 2001 the court in the Adkins Litigation dismissed the case on the grounds that the plaintiffs had waived any right to seek judicial relief or a class action by agreeing to arbitrate all disputes with the company. The plaintiffs have filed an appeal of that dismissal with the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

We believe that we have complied with all federal and state laws at issue, and we intend to continue to vigorously defend each of these proceedings. We believe that none of these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations, although we can make no assurances in this regard.

In February 2001, the Washington Department of Labor and Industries issued an assessment against us for $498,000 claimed to be owing for workers' compensation premiums for 1998, as well as $236,000 in interest and penalties. We dispute the assessment and have filed an appeal. The Department of Labor and Industries has stated that it will also audit our payment of workers' compensation premiums for subsequent years. We believe that the Labor and Industries assessment and audits will not have a material adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations, although no assurances can be made in this regard.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters were submitted to a vote of security holders during the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2001.

PART II

Item 7. Management's Discussion And Analysis Of Financial Condition And Results Of Operations

The following discussion and analysis should be read in connection with our Consolidated Financial Statements and the notes thereto and other financial information included elsewhere in this document.

Overview

Labor Ready is a leading national provider of temporary workers for manual labor jobs. Our customers are primarily in freight handling, warehousing, landscaping, construction, light manufacturing, and other light industrial businesses. We are not dependent on any individual customer for more than 2% of our annual revenues. During 2001, we provided temporary workers to more than 300,000 customers and filled more than 5.5 million work orders. We are responsible for employee-related expenses of our temporary workers, including workers' compensation, unemployment compensation insurance, and Medicare and Social Security taxes. We do not provide health, dental, disability or life insurance to our temporary workers.

Our business includes an element of seasonal fluctuation. Construction and landscaping businesses and, to a lesser degree, other customer businesses typically increase activity in spring, summer and early fall months and decrease activity in late fall and winter months. Inclement weather can slow construction and landscaping activities in such periods. As a result, we have generally experienced a significant increase in temporary labor demand in the spring, summer and early fall months, and lower demand in the late fall and winter months. From time to time during peak periods, we experience shortages of available temporary workers. See "Risk Factors: Issues and Uncertainties — Availability of Temporary Workers."

We grew rapidly from 8 dispatch offices in 1991 to 852 dispatch offices in 2000 and operated 756 dispatch offices as of December 31, 2001. All of the growth in dispatch offices was achieved by opening Company-owned locations rather than through acquisitions. Our revenues grew from approximately $6.0 million in 1991 to $976.6 million in 2000 and were $917.0 million for fiscal year 2001. We have dispatch offices in markets throughout the United States, Canada, United Kingdom and Puerto Rico. Revenues from international operations are less than 5% of our total revenues for all periods presented.

Our rapid expansion from 1991 through 2000 resulted in our establishing a national "footprint" with a presence in all 50 states, which we believe provides us a significant competitive advantage. In 2001, we undertook a program of consolidating certain dispatch offices to achieve increased efficiency without abandoning markets. This consolidation process resulted in our opening 32 dispatch offices and closing 92 in 2001, for a net decrease of 60 offices. We incurred costs of approximately $1.0 million to open 32 new dispatch offices, an average of approximately $30,000 per dispatch office. Approximately $13,000 of these costs includes salaries, recruiting, testing, training, lease and other related costs; the remaining $17,000 includes computer systems and other equipment related costs, leasehold improvements and related equipment.

We see opportunities for growth of our business, including opportunities to expand operations overseas. We expect to open approximately 10 new dispatch offices in 2002, most of which will be in the United Kingdom. While we do not anticipate closing a significant number of existing dispatch offices in 2002, we will continue to analyze the performance and financial viability of each of our offices. We have one franchisee, which operates five dispatch offices. Our franchise agreement with this franchisee terminated March 31, 2002, and we do not currently intend to grant additional franchises. Royalty revenues from the franchised dispatch offices were not material during any period presented herein.

We are focusing on increasing the average revenue per dispatch office. The average revenue per dispatch office for offices in operation at the end of the year and open for more than one year was approximately $1.2 million in 2001 and $1.4 million in 2000. We believe this average can be improved through implementation of a number of measures designed to improve customer satisfaction, marketing effectiveness and retention and training of our dispatch office staff, as well as an improved U.S. economy.

Our revenues declined from $976.6 million in 2000 to $917.0 million in 2001, a decrease of 6.1%. This was the first year-over-year decline in revenues in our history, and largely reflects the economic downturn experienced in the United States in 2001. We have projected further revenue declines in 2002, due to uncertainties about the national economy.

By implementing efficiencies in all areas of the company, we managed to reduce our overhead expenses in 2001 at approximately the same rate as revenues declined. As a result, we earned $0.23 per common share in 2001 as compared to $0.24 per common share in 2000. We expect to keep overhead similarly in line with revenue in 2002. Nevertheless, our earnings outlook remains somewhat unclear at present. Workers compensation costs for 2002 have increased substantially more than expected. While we endeavor to pass increased costs on to our customers, we anticipate that it may take several months to fully implement the re-pricing necessary to maintain our customary margins.

Summary of Critical Accounting Policies. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations discusses our consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. On an on-going basis, management evaluates its estimates and judgments, including those related to workers compensation claims, bad debts, and contingencies and litigation. Management bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Management believes the following critical accounting policies, among others, affect its more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. We maintain reserves for workers' compensation claims using actuarial estimates of the future cost of claims and related expenses that have been reported but not settled, and that have been incurred but not reported. This reserve is discounted for net present value, using a discount rate of 6%. If the actual cost of such claims and related expenses exceeds the amounts estimated, or if the discount rate represents an inflated estimate of the return on capital over time, additional reserves may be required. We also establish an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of our customers to make required payments. If the financial condition of our customers were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required. We have also established reserves for contingent legal and regulatory liabilities, based on management's current best estimates and judgments of the scope and likelihood of such liabilities. If the actual outcome of these matters is less favorable than expected, an adjustment would be charged to income in the period the estimate changes.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth the percentage of revenues represented by certain items in our Consolidated Statements of Operations for the periods indicated.

	Year ended December 31,
	2001	2000	1999
Revenues from services	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%
Cost of services	70.0	70.0	69.0
Selling, general and administrative expenses	27.6	27.5	25.5
Depreciation and amortization	0.9	0.8	0.6
Interest income (expense) and other, net	0.1	(0.1)	(0.1)
Income before taxes on income and cumulative Effect of change in accounting principle	1.6	1.6	4.8
Net income	1.0	1.0	2.7

Years Ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999

Dispatch Offices. The number of offices declined to 756 at December 31, 2001 from 816 locations at December 31, 2000, a net decrease of 60 dispatch offices or 7.4%, as we closed certain under performing offices and consolidated customers with nearby offices to maintain our profitability during the 2001 economic downturn.

The number of offices increased to 816 at December 31, 2000 from 687 locations at December 31, 1999, a net increase of 129 dispatch offices or 18.8%.

Revenues from Services. Revenues from services decreased to $917.0 million in 2001 as compared to $976.6 million in 2000, a decrease of $59.6 million or 6.1%. The decrease in revenues is primarily due to our consolidation of dispatch offices and a slight decrease in average revenues per dispatch office during the 2001 economic downturn, partially offset by a 2.0% increase in the average bill rate. We had 30 new offices that remained opened at the end of 2001. These offices produced average revenues of approximately $357,500 as compared to 2000 when we had 197 new offices remaining at year end, which produced average revenues of approximately $410,000. In 2001, we also saw a 4.2 % sales decline for branches opened one year and longer as compared to an increase of 7.2% in 2000.

Revenues from services increased to $976.6 million in 2000 as compared to $850.9 million in 1999, an increase of $125.7 million or 14.8%. The increase in revenues was primarily due to continued increases in revenues from mature dispatch offices as we consolidated our position in the marketplace and built brand awareness. We opened 211 offices in 2000, which produced average revenues of approximately $410,000 as compared to 1999 when we opened 201 offices, which had average revenues of $480,000.

	(in thousands)
Increase (decrease) in revenues from dispatch offices open for full year	$ (70,548)	$ 44,247	$ 147,453
Revenues from new dispatch offices opened during year	10,940	81,453	96,525
Total increase (decrease) over prior year	$ (59,608)	$ 125,700	$ 243,978

Cost of Services. Cost of services decreased to $641.9 million in 2001 from $684.1 million in 2000, a decrease of $42.2 million or 6.2%. Cost of services was 70.0% of revenue for both periods presented. The decrease in cost of services was due largely to the decline in revenue, partially offset by a 0.8% increase in workers compensation costs from 2000 to 2001.

Cost of services increased to $684.1 million in 2000 from $587.4 million in 1999, an increase of $96.7 million or 16.5%. The increase in cost of services was due largely to the 14.8% increase in revenue from 1999 to 2000. Cost of services was 70.0% of revenue in 2000 compared to 69.0% of revenue in 1999, an increase of 1.0%. Cost of services as a percentage of revenues was higher in 2000 due to a one time benefit received, in the first quarter of 1999, for several changes made to the workers' compensation program.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses were $252.7 million in 2001 as compared to $268.4 million in 2000, a decrease of $15.7 million, or 5.9%. The decrease in SG&A expenses is commensurate with the decrease in revenue and number of dispatch offices. SG&A expenses were 27.6% of revenues in 2001 as compared to 27.5% of revenues in 2000. We expect that SG&A expenses as a percentage of revenues may fluctuate in future periods as we may adjust our staffing at the dispatch offices as well as our operating and administrative capabilities.

SG&A expenses were $268.4 million in 2000 as compared to $217.3 million in 1999, an increase of $51.1 million, or 23.5%. SG&A expenses were 27.5% of revenues in 2000 as compared to 25.5% of revenues in 1999, due mainly to an increase in staffing costs.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense. Depreciation and amortization expenses were $8.2 million in 2001 and $7.4 million in 2000, an increase of $0.8 million or 10.8%. The increase in depreciation and amortization expense is primarily due to the higher levels of depreciation resulting from the addition of $6.5 million in property and equipment during the year. These additions primarily include our headquarters building, computer equipment, software, and other equipment.

Depreciation and amortization expenses were $7.4 million in 2000 and $4.8 million in 1999, an increase of $2.6 million or 54.2%. The increase in depreciation and amortization expense is primarily due to the higher levels of depreciation resulting from the addition of $10.8 million in property and equipment during the year. These additions primarily include CDMs and related equipment, computer equipment, software and other equipment.

Interest and Other Income (Expense), Net. We recorded net interest and other income of $0.8 million for the period ending December 31, 2001 as compared to ($0.8) million of expense for the same period in 2000. The increase in net interest and other income was primarily the result of the $1.1 million realized pretax gain on the sale of real estate.

We recorded net interest expense of $0.8 million for the period ending December 31, 2000 as compared to $1.0 million of expense for the same period in 1999. The decrease in net interest expense was the result of increased cash flow, which enabled us to decrease our borrowings on the line of credit, offset by increases in interest expense on CDM leases and higher letter of credit and line of credit fees than in 1999.

Taxes On Income. Taxes on income decreased to $5.7 million in 2001 from $5.9 million in 2000, a decrease of $0.2 million or 3.4%. The decrease in taxes is commensurate with the decrease in income from operations on a year over year basis and a decrease in the impact of foreign losses. Our effective tax rate was 38.0% in 2001 as compared to 36.9% in 2000. The principal difference between the statutory federal income tax rate and our effective income tax rate results from state income taxes, certain non-deductible expenses and the valuation allowance discussed below.

Taxes on income decreased to $5.9 million in 2000 from $15.9 million in 1999, a decrease of $10.0 million or 62.9%. The decrease in taxes is commensurate with the decrease in income from operations on a year over year basis. Our effective tax rate was 36.9% in 2000 as compared to 39.2% in 1999. The principal difference between the statutory federal income tax rate and our effective income tax rate results from state income taxes, certain non-deductible expenses and the valuation allowance discussed below.

We had a net deferred tax asset of approximately $18.2 million at December 31, 2001, resulting primarily from workers' compensation deposits, credits and reserves. Due to the uncertainty of the realization of certain tax planning measures, we have established a valuation allowance against our net deferred tax asset in the amount of $1.5 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Net cash provided by operating activities was $56.9, $42.3 million and $2.5 million in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. The increase in cash flows from operations in 2001 as compared to 2000 is largely due to the increase in collections of accounts receivable offset by the decrease in year over year net income and other current liabilities.

The increase in cash flows from operations in 2000 as compared to 1999 is largely due to the increase in collections of accounts receivable along with an increase in other current liabilities and reserves for workers' compensation and a decrease in other current assets offset by the decrease in year over year net income.

We used net cash in investing activities of $34.3 in 2001, $18.3 million in 2000 and $14.2 million in 1999. The increase in cash used in investing activities in 2001 as compared to 2000 is due primarily to the $32.5 million increase in restricted cash and other assets, which is primarily used to collateralize our line of credit facility, offset by a decrease in capital expenditures.

The increase in cash used in investing activities in 2000 as compared to 1999 is due primarily to the increase in capital expenditures, which includes our new corporate headquarters.

Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities was ($9.6 million), ($4.7 million) and $2.6 million in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively. The increase in cash used in financing activities in 2001 as compared to 2000 is due mainly to the increase in the amount paid on debt, which included our $6.2 million loan on our new corporate headquarters. In 2001, we repurchased and retired approximately 0.8 million shares of common stock at a cost of approximately $3.1 million. We also made payments of $1.7 million on the CDM capital leases.

The increase in cash used in financing activities in 2000 as compared to 1999 is due mainly to the increase in the amount of preferred and common stock repurchased and retired by us, offset by the increase in debt. In 2000, we repurchased and retired approximately 2.4 million shares of common stock and 6.5 million shares of preferred stock at a cost of approximately $10.8 million for the common shares and $0.9 million for the preferred shares. We also made payments of $1.4 million on the CDM capital leases.

As discussed further in the consolidated financial statements, we are required by the workers' compensation program to collateralize a portion of our workers' compensation liability with irrevocable letters of credit and surety bonds. At December 31, 2001, we had provided our insurance carriers with letters of credit totaling $54.9 million and surety bonds totaling $43.2 million. The letters of credit bear fees of 0.75% per year and are supported by an equal amount of available borrowings on the line of credit facility described below. The surety bonds bear fees based on a percentage of the bond, which is determined by each independent surety carrier, but do not exceed 2.0% of the bond amount. Subsequent to year end, we increased our outstanding letters of credit by $13.9 million, and expect to further increase our outstanding letters of credit by an additional $7.5 million by the end of 2002. See Risk Factors: Issues and Uncertainties — Workers Compensation Insurance.

In March 2001, we entered into a line of credit facility and an accounts receivable securitization facility (collectively the "Accounts Receivable Facility") with certain unaffiliated financial institutions, which replaced our previous financing agreement with U.S. Bank. The Accounts Receivable Facility provides loan advances through the sale of substantially all of our eligible domestic accounts receivable to a wholly owned and consolidated subsidiary. The agreement includes a corporate guarantee by us and requires that we meet certain financial covenants. Subject to certain availability requirements, this agreement allows us to borrow a maximum of $100 million, up to $80 million of which may be used to obtain letters of credit. The amounts we may borrow (borrowing capacity) under this agreement are largely a function of the levels of our accounts receivable from time to time, supplemented by pledged and restricted cash. See Risk Factors: Issues and Uncertainties — Credit Facilities.

At December 31, 2001, we had a total available borrowing capacity of $62.8 million under the Accounts Receivable Facility, comprised of $48.6 million of eligible accounts receivable available in our calculated borrowing base and $15.0 million of pledged cash. Of this $62.8 million available, we had committed $54.9 million for letters of credit to our insurance carriers as of December 31, 2001, leaving $7.9 million available for future borrowing. Subsequent to year end, we pledged an additional $17.0 million in cash and increased our letters of credit by $13.9 million. We expect to provide an additional $7.5 million in letters of credit by the end of 2002.

In 2000, we entered into a secured credit facility with U.S. Bank for the purchase of our headquarters building in downtown Tacoma, Washington. The facility allowed us to borrow up to $10.0 million with interest at the London Inter-Bank Rate plus 1.30% and was secured by a first deed of trust on the subject property. We had $6.2 million outstanding at December 31, 2000. This facility was canceled and repaid in full during the first quarter of 2001.

Subsequent to year end, we entered into a revolving credit facility with Wells Fargo Bank. This agreement allows us to borrow up to $10.0 million with interest at the fluctuating rate per annum of 0.75% below the Prime Rate or 1.85% above the London Inter-Bank Rate. The available borrowing amount under this facility will be reduced by $125,000 each quarter through 2006 at which time the facility expires. The facility bears fees of 0.35% of the unused amount, and is secured by a first deed of trust on our corporate headquarters building.

A portion of the collateral securing our workers compensation obligations consists of $43.2 million in surety bonds issued by independent insurance companies on our behalf. These bonds are subject to annual renewal. If any such bonds are not renewed, we will be required to replace them with letters of credit or similar obligations, for which we would likely be required to pledge cash or other collateral.

Historically, we have experienced cash flow deficits from time to time due to seasonal sales fluctuations and expansion of operations. We invest significant amounts of additional cash into the operations of new dispatch offices until they begin to generate sufficient revenue to cover their operating costs, generally within 18 to 24 months. We pay our temporary workers on a daily basis, and bill our customers on a weekly basis. The average collection cycle for 2001 was approximately 25 days. Consequently, we historically have experienced significant negative cash from operation and investment activities during periods of high growth and may require additional sources of working capital in order to grow. See Risk Factors: Issues and Uncertainties — Working Capital Requirements. Management expects cash flow deficits to be financed by profitable operations and the use of our credit facilities, and we may also consider other equity or debt financings as necessary or appropriate. We analyze acquisition opportunities from time to time and may pursue acquisitions in certain circumstances. Any acquisitions we enter into may involve expenditures of cash, the issuance of additional equity securities or assumption of additional debt.

Item 7A. Qualitative and Quantitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed to market risk related to changes in interest rates, and to a minor extent, foreign currency exchange rates, each of which could adversely affect the value of our investments. We do not currently use derivative financial instruments. At December 31, 2001, our purchased investments have maturities of less than 90 days. As such, an increase in interest rates immediately and uniformly by 10% from levels at December 31, 2001 would not have a material affect upon our cash and cash equivalent balances. Because of the relative short maturities of the investments we hold, we do not expect our operating results or cash flows to be affected to any significant degree by a sudden change in market interest rates on our cash and cash equivalents portfolio.

We have a minor amount of assets and liabilities denominated in certain foreign currencies related to our international operations. We have not hedged our translation risk on these currencies and we have the ability to hold our foreign-currency denominated assets indefinitely and do not expect that a sudden or significant change in foreign exchange rates will have a material impact on future net income or cash flows.

Risk Factors: Issues and Uncertainties

The following issues and uncertainties, among others, should be considered in evaluating our future prospects.

We experience intense competition in our industry, which could harm our results. The short-term, light industrial niche of the temporary services industry is highly fragmented and highly competitive, with limited barriers to entry. Several very large full-service and specialized temporary labor companies, as well as small local operations, compete with us in the staffing industry. Competition in some markets is intense, particularly for provision of light industrial personnel, and price pressure from both competitors and customers is increasing.

The cost of compliance with government regulations is significant. We incur significant costs to comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations relating to employment, including occupational safety and health provisions, wage and hour requirements (including minimum wages), workers' compensation and unemployment insurance. In general, we attempt to increase fees charged to our customers to offset increased costs relating to these laws and regulations, but may be unable to do so.

We are continually subject to the risk of new regulation which could materially impact our business. In 2001 and 2002, a number of bills were introduced in Congress and various state legislatures which, if enacted, would impose conditions which could materially and adversely affect our business. This proposed legislation, much of which is backed by certain special interest groups adverse to us, includes provisions such as a requirement that our temporary workers receive the same pay and benefits as our customers' regular employees, prohibition on fees charged in connection with our CDMs, and a requirement that our customers provide workers compensation insurance for our temporary workers. We take a very active role in opposing such legislation and in informing policy makers as to the social and economic benefits of our business. None of these proposed bills has yet been enacted into law. However, we cannot guarantee that any such bills will not be enacted, in which event demand for our service may be adversely affected.

Our business depends on the availability of workers compensation insurance and our continued ability to collateralize our obligations. The events of September 11, 2001, added to an already-hardening insurance market, have resulted in significantly increased insurance costs and higher deductibles. While we have renewed our workers compensation insurance for the current year, we cannot be certain that such insurance will always be available or will be available at a reasonable cost. In addition, workers' compensation expenses are based on our actual claims experiences in each state and the actual aggregate workers' compensation costs may exceed estimates. Moreover, we expect that the amount of collateral required to secure our workers compensation obligations will continue to increase. In the event we lose our current credit facilities, or our cash flow and borrowing capacity under our credit facilities are insufficient to meet this increasing obligation, we will be required to seek additional sources of capital to satisfy our liquidity needs. There can be no assurance that such additional sources will be available to us or, if available, at commercially reasonable terms. In addition, we may issue additional equity or debt securities to finance any such capital requirements, which could result in dilution to existing shareholders.

Our credit facilities require that we meet certain levels of financial performance. Our credit facilities contain significant financial covenants. Among other things, these covenants require us to maintain certain earnings levels and a certain ratio of earnings to fixed expenses. In the event that we do not comply with the covenants and the lender does not consent to such non-compliance, we will be in default of our agreement which could subject us to penalty rates of interest and accelerate the maturity of the outstanding balances. In such an event, we could also be required to seek additional sources of capital to satisfy our liquidity needs. There can be no assurance that such additional sources will be available to us or, if available, at commercially reasonable terms. In addition, we may issue additional equity or debt securities to finance any such capital requirements, which could result in dilution to existing shareholders.

Our business depends extensively on recruiting and retaining qualified dispatch office managers. We rely heavily on the performance and productivity of our dispatch office managers, who manage the operation of the dispatch offices, including recruitment and daily dispatch of temporary workers, marketing and providing quality customer service. We must recruit a sufficient number of managers to staff each new office and to replace managers lost through attrition or termination. Our future growth and performance depend on our ability to hire, train and retain qualified managers from a limited pool of qualified candidates who frequently have no prior experience in the temporary employment industry.

Further growth and expansion will require significant working capital. While our cash flow was positive in 2001, we have historically experienced periods of significant negative cash flow from operations and investment activities. We must spend $30,000 to 45,000 to open each dispatch office. Once open, we invest significant additional cash into the operations of new dispatch offices until they begin to generate sufficient revenue to cover their operating costs. In addition, we pay our temporary personnel on a daily basis and bill our customers on a weekly basis. As a result, we must maintain sufficient cash reserves to pay our temporary personnel prior to receiving payment from our customers. We expect to require additional sources of capital in order to grow especially during seasonal peaks in revenue experienced in the third and fourth quarter of the year.

Our industry incurs all the risk associated with employing manual labor, including the risk of litigation, which we try to manage but can lead to significant potential liability. From time to time we are party to litigation in the ordinary course of our business. In the past year, certain special interest groups have coordinated legal actions directed at us designed to further their own interests. We cannot assure you that such litigation will not disrupt our business or impact our financial results due to the costs of defending against such litigation, any judgments that may be awarded against us, and the loss of significant management time devoted to such litigation. Temporary staffing companies, such as ours, employ people in the workplace of their customers. This creates a risk of potential litigation based on claims of discrimination and harassment, violations of health and safety and wage and hour laws, criminal activity, and other claims. While we try to limit our liability by contract, we may be held responsible for the actions at a job site of workers not under our direct control. Like other temporary staffing companies, we are also affected by fluctuations and interruptions in the business of our customers.

Our ability to grow is subject to uncertainties. Future growth must be accomplished through improvement of our average sales per dispatch office, expansion of our share of the market niche in which we compete, development of new service lines, and/or expansion of our operations abroad, all of which are subject to uncertainties. Our ability to grow is dependent upon such factors as our ability to attract and retain sufficient qualified management personnel to manage multiple and individual dispatch offices, the availability of sufficient temporary workers to meet customer needs, our ability to deal with increasing workers' compensation costs, effective collection of accounts receivable and availability of working capital.

The loss of any of our key personnel could adversely affect us. In 2000 and 2001, we experienced significant turnover in key members of our management team, including a Chief Executive Officer in each of those two years. We must successfully integrate all new management and other key positions within our organization in order to achieve our operating objectives. As a result, our future financial performance depends on our ability to recruit, motivate and retain key management personnel.

Our business will likely be affected by economic fluctuations affecting the U.S. economy. The general level of economic activity, interest rates and unemployment in the U.S. and specifically within the construction, landscaping and light industrial trades may significantly affect demand for our services. The U.S. economic downturn in 2001 resulted in a decline in our revenues.

Our business tends to be busier during warmer seasonal periods. Many of our customers are in the construction and landscaping industries, which are significantly affected by seasonal factors such as the weather. We generally experience increased demand in the spring, summer and early fall, while inclement weather is generally coupled with lower demand for our services.

Our business would suffer if we could not attract temporary workers to fill the jobs we offer. We compete with other temporary personnel companies to meet our customer needs. We must continually attract reliable temporary workers to fill positions and may from time to time experience shortages of available temporary workers.

Our information and computer processing systems are critical to the operations of our business and any failure could cause significant problems. Our management information systems, located at our headquarters, are essential for data exchange and operational communications with dispatch offices throughout the country. Any interruption, impairment or loss of data integrity or malfunction of these systems could severely hamper our business.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To The Shareholders of Labor Ready, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Labor Ready, Inc. (a Washington Corporation) and all of its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Labor Ready, Inc. and all subsidiaries as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the three years in the period ended December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

As explained in the Accounting Policies Note to the Financial Statements, effective January 1, 1999 the Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Position 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Startup Activities" which requires the Company to expense the cost of establishing new dispatch offices.

LABOR READY, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Years Ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999

(In Thousands Except Per Share Data)

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation. Labor Ready, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries provide temporary staffing and related services for manual labor jobs to customers primarily in the industrial and small business markets from 756 offices located throughout the United States, Canada, United Kingdom and Puerto Rico. We provide services to a wide variety of customers, none of which individually comprise a significant portion of revenues within a geographic region or for us as a whole. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Labor Ready, Inc. and all of its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Revenue recognition. Revenue from the sale of services is recognized at the time the service is performed. A portion of our income is derived from franchise and cash dispensing machine fees, which are insignificant for all years presented.

Cost of services. Cost of services includes the wages of temporary workers, related payroll taxes, workers' compensation expenses and transportation.

Cash and cash equivalents. We consider all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less at date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Property and equipment. Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets, which are 31 to 39 years for buildings and improvements, 3 to 5 years for computers and software, 7 years for cash dispensing machines and 5 to 7 years for furniture and equipment. Depreciation expense for 2001, 2000 and 1999 was $8,188, $7,345 and $4,775.

Intangible assets and other. Intangible and other assets consist primarily of capitalized closing costs associated with our financing instruments. Other intangible assets are stated at cost and are amortized using the straight-line method over periods matching the financing. Management evaluates, on an ongoing basis, the carrying value of intangible assets and makes a specific provision against the asset when an impairment is identified. Amortization of intangible assets was $15 in 2001, $35 in 2000 and $29 in 1999.

Income taxes. Deferred income taxes are provided for temporary differences between the financial statement and income tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the temporary differences are expected to reverse. If it is more likely than not that some portion of a deferred tax asset will not be realized, a valuation allowance is recorded.

Restricted cash. Restricted cash consists of pledged cash deposits that have been placed with independent financial institutions to secure our obligations under our workers compensation program and to provide collateral for our line of credit facility.

Foreign currency translation. Cumulative translation adjustments relate to our consolidated foreign subsidiaries, Labour Ready Temporary Services, Ltd. (Canada) and Labour Ready Temporary Services United Kingdom, Ltd. Foreign currency translation is calculated by application of the current rate method and is included in the determination of consolidated shareholders' equity at the respective balance sheet dates.

Use of estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In October 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) approved SFAS No. 144, “Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets” (“SFAS 144”), which supersedes SFAS No. 121, “Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed of” (“SFAS 121”) and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB No. 30, “Reporting the Results of Operations — Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions” for the disposal of a segment of a business. SFAS 144 retains many of the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121, but resolves certain implementation issues associated with that statement. SFAS 144 will be effective for fiscal year 2002. The adoption of this statement should not have a material effect on our results of operations or its financial position.

In August 2001, FASB approved SFAS No. 143, “Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations” (“SFAS 143”), which will be effective beginning fiscal year 2003. SFAS 143 addresses the financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. The adoption of this statement should not have a material effect on our results of operations or its financial position.

In June 2001, FASB approved Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (“SFAS”) No. 141, “Business Combinations” (“SFAS 141”), and SFAS No. 142, “Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets” (“SFAS 142”). SFAS 141 prospectively prohibits the pooling of interest method of accounting for business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. SFAS 142 requires companies to cease amortizing goodwill that existed at June 30, 2001. The amortization of existing goodwill will cease on December 31, 2001. Any goodwill resulting from acquisitions completed after June 30, 2001 will not be amortized. SFAS 142 also establishes a new method of testing goodwill for impairment on an annual basis or on an interim basis if an event occurs or circumstances change that would reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. The adoption of these statements did not have a material effect on our results of operations or our financial position.

In the first quarter of 1999, we adopted the provisions of Statement of Position 98-5, “Reporting on the Costs of Start-up Activities” (SOP 98-5). SOP 98-5 establishes new rules for the financial reporting of start-up costs, and requires us to expense the cost of establishing new dispatch offices as incurred and write off, as a cumulative effect of adopting SOP 98-5, any capitalized pre-opening costs in the first quarter of the year adopted. Prior to adopting SOP 98-5, pre-opening costs incurred to open new dispatch offices, including salaries, recruiting, testing, training, lease and other related costs, were capitalized and amortized using the straight-line method over two years. The cumulative effect of adopting SOP 98-5 was to decrease net income by $1.5 million or $0.03 per common share.

WORKERS’ COMPENSATION

We provide workers’ compensation insurance to our temporary workers and regular employees. For workers’ compensation claims originating in the majority of states (the non-monopolistic states), we have purchased a deductible insurance policy. Under the terms of the policy, our workers’ compensation exposure is limited to a deductible amount per occurrence and a maximum aggregate stop-loss limit. Should any single occurrence exceed the deductible amount, all losses and expenses beyond the deductible amount are to be paid by independent insurance companies unrelated to us.

Similarly, should the total of paid losses related to any one year period exceed the maximum aggregate stop-loss limit for that year, all losses beyond the maximum aggregate stop-loss limit are paid by independent insurance companies unrelated to us.

We establish a reserve for workers’ compensation claims using actuarial estimates of the future cost of claims and related expenses that have been reported but not settled, and that have been incurred but not reported. Adjustments to the claims reserve are charged or credited to expense in the periods in which they occur. Included in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 are workers’ compensation claims reserves in the non-monopolistic states of $61.6 million and $48.8 million and in the monopolistic states of $2.4 and $0.9 million, respectively. The claims reserves were computed using a discount rate of 6.0% at December 31, 2001 and 2000.

Workers’ compensation expense totaling $58.2 million, $54.2 million and $38.2 million was recorded as a component of cost of services in each of the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999 respectively.

For workers’ compensation claims originating in Washington, Ohio, West Virginia (the monopolistic states), Canada and Puerto Rico, we pay workers’ compensation insurance premiums as required by government administered programs. The insurance premiums are established by each jurisdiction, generally based upon the job classification of the insured workers and our previous claims experience.

For workers’ compensation claims originating in the United Kingdom, we have purchased an employers’ liability insurance policy. This policy carries a 10 million GBP limit.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE SECURITIZATION FACILITY AND DEBT

	Outstanding debt as of December 31,
	2001	2000
Accounts receivable securitization	—	—
Credit facilities	—	6,200
Capital leases	6,843	8,554

In March 2001, we entered into a letter of credit facility and an accounts receivable securitization facility with certain unaffiliated financial institutions (the "Creditors"), which replaced our $60 million line-of-credit agreement with U.S. Bank. Subject to certain availability requirements, these facilities provide a maximum combined borrowing capacity of $100 million, all of which may be utilized as a revolving line of credit and up to $80 million of which may be used to obtain letters of credit (but any usage for letters of credit will reduce the amount available for use as loans). Interest on advances under the line of credit facility is generally based upon the Creditors' commercial paper rate, and fees for the letter of credit portion of the facility are based upon the Creditor's cost of issuance. The line of credit facility is secured by eligible accounts receivable of Labor Ready, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries, which are transferred by them to Labor Ready Funding Corporation ("LRF"), a wholly owned and fully consolidated, bankruptcy remote subsidiary of Labor Ready, Inc. and pledged to the Creditors on an ongoing basis. The letter of credit facility is secured by Labor Ready, Inc.'s pledge of all of the outstanding capital stock of LRF. Additionally, Labor Ready, Inc. acts as a servicer for LRF in the collection and administration of the pledged accounts receivable.

At December 31, 2001, we had a total available borrowing capacity of $62.8 million under the Accounts Receivable Facility comprised of $48.6 million of eligible accounts receivable available in our calculated borrowing base and $15.0 million of pledged cash. Of this $62.8 million available, we had committed $54.9 million for letters of credit to our insurance carriers, leaving $7.9 million available for future borrowing. Subsequent to year end, we pledged an additional $17.0 million in cash and increased our letters of credit by $13.9 million.

We are required by the workers' compensation program to collateralize a portion of our workers' compensation liability with irrevocable letters of credit and surety bonds. At December 31, 2001, we had provided our insurance carriers with letters of credit totaling $54.9 million and $43.2 million of surety bonds. The letters of credit bear fees of .75% per year and are supported by an equal amount of available borrowings on the Accounts Receivable Securitization facility. The surety bonds bear fees based on a percentage of the bond, which is determined by each independent surety carrier but do not exceed 2% of the bond amount. Subsequent to year end, we increased our letters of credit to our insurance carriers by $13.9 million. We expect to provide an additional $7.5 million in letters of credit by the end of 2002.

Subsequent to year end, we entered into a revolving credit facility with Wells Fargo Bank. This agreement allows us to borrow up to $10.0 million with interest at the fluctuating rate per annum of 0.75% below the Prime Rate or 1.85% above the London Inter-Bank Rate. The available borrowing amount under this facility will be reduced by $125,000 each quarter through 2006 at which time the facility expires. The facility bears fees of 0.35% of the unused amount and is secured by a first deed of trust on our corporate headquarters building.

We purchased a 157,000 square foot office building with an adjacent parking garage in downtown Tacoma, Washington, in 2000. The aggregate purchase price of the building, parking garage and estimated tenant improvements was approximately $11.5 million. We entered into a secured credit facility with U.S. Bank for this building. The agreement allowed us to borrow up to $10.0 million with interest at the London Inter-Bank Rate plus 1.30%. This facility was secured by a first deed of trust on the subject property and cross-collateralized with our accounts receivable. We had $6.2 million outstanding at December 31, 2000. This facility was canceled and repaid in full during the first quarter of 2001.

We have entered into lease agreements for automated Cash Dispensing Machines ("CDMs") for installation in our dispatch offices. The leases, which are classified as capital leases, are payable over 60, 72 and 84 months with imputed interest rates of 7.06%, 6.37% and 9.02% and a residual payment equal to 20% of the CDMs' original cost. The leases are secured by the CDMs.

Cost and accumulated amortization of the CDMs are as follows at December 31, 2001:

Cash dispensing machines	$	13,443
Less accumulated amortization		(5,628)
	$	7,815

Future minimum lease payments under capital leases together with the present value of the minimum lease payments as of December 31, 2001 are as follows:

Year ended December 31:
2002	$	2,183
2003		2,183

2005		769
2006		5
Total minimum lease payments		7,323
Less imputed interest		(480)
	$	6,843

RESTRICTED CASH

We have cash deposits with independent financial institutions for the purpose of securing our obligations under our workers' compensation program and for cross collateralization of our line of credit facility. These deposits may be refunded as compensation claims are paid or when our accounts receivable borrowing base is sufficient to cover our outstanding letters of credit.

At December 31, 2001, we had $18.4 million of restricted cash securing our workers' compensation program and $15.0 million cross collateralizing our line of credit facility. Subsequent to year end, we increased our collateral on the line of credit facility by $17.0 million.

INCOME PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income less preferred stock dividends by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income, less preferred stock dividends, by the weighted average number of common shares and common stock equivalents outstanding during the period. Common share equivalents include the dilutive effect of outstanding options, except where their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. We had 2,852, 3,471 and 701 anti-dilutive options at the end of 2001, 2000 and 1999. In June 1999, we declared a three-for-two stock split which has been retroactively applied in the determination of weighted average shares outstanding.

Basic and diluted earnings per share were calculated as follows:

PREFERRED STOCK

We have authorized 20,000 shares of blank check Preferred Stock. The blank check Preferred Stock is issuable in one or more series, each with such designations, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions as our Board of Directors may determine and set forth in supplemental resolutions at the time of issuance, without further shareholder action.

The initial series of blank check Preferred Stock of the corporation authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, was designated as Series A Preferred Stock. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, we had no outstanding shares of $0.131 par value Series A Preferred Stock. We repurchased, at the par value of $0.131 per share plus accumulated dividends, and retired 6,486 preferred shares in 2000.

Each share of Series A Preferred Stock is entitled to one vote in all matters submitted to a vote of our shareholders. The Series A Preferred Stock will vote on par with the Common Shares as a single class unless the action being considered involves a change in the rights of the Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Preferred Stock bears a cumulative annual dividend rate of five percent accrued on December 31 of each year, is redeemable at par value plus accumulated dividends at our option at any time after December 31, 1994, and contains an involuntary preferential liquidation distribution equivalent to the par value plus all accumulated dividends remaining unpaid.

In June 1999 the Board of Directors authorized a three-for-two Preferred Stock split. This Preferred Stock split was effected in the form of three shares of Preferred Stock issued for every two shares of Preferred Stock outstanding as of each date of declaration. All applicable share and per share data have been adjusted for the effect of the stock splits.

Pursuant to the Rights Plan as defined below, 844 shares of Preferred Stock have been reserved for issuance under terms of the Rights Plan.

A Preferred Stock dividend in the amount of $23 was paid upon the repurchase and retirement of the Preferred Stock in third quarter of 2000.

COMMON STOCK

In June 1999, the Board of Directors authorized a three-for-two common stock split. This common stock split was effected in the form of three shares of common stock issued for every two shares of common stock outstanding as of the date of declaration. All applicable share and per share data have been adjusted for the effect of this stock split.

During 2001, 2000 and 1999, we repurchased 836 shares, 2,377 shares and 136 shares of common stock on the open market for cash consideration of $3,065, $10,824 and $1,444, respectively. The repurchased shares were retired and are not available for reissuance.

In 1998, the Board of Directors adopted a Shareholders Rights Plan ("the Rights Plan") and declared a dividend distribution of one right for each outstanding share of our common stock. Under the terms of the Rights Plan, each right entitles the holder to purchase one one-hundredth of a share of the Series A Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $50.25. The rights are exercisable a specified number of days following (1) the acquisition by a person or group of persons of 15% or more of our common stock, or (2) the commencement of a tender or exchange offer for 15% or more of our common stock. We have reserved 844 shares of the Series A Preferred Stock for issuance upon exercise of the rights. The rights may be redeemed by us, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, for $0.01 cents per right in accordance with the provisions of the Rights Plan. If any group or person acquires 50% or more of our common stock, the holders of the unredeemed rights (except for the acquiring group or person) may purchase for the exercise price, the number of common shares having a market value equal to two times the exercise price. The rights expire in January 2008, unless redeemed earlier by us.

We have assessed our past earnings history and trends, projected sales, expiration dates of loss carry-forwards, and our ability to implement tax planning strategies which are designed to accelerate or increase taxable income. Based on the results of this analysis and the uncertainty of the realization of certain tax planning measures, we have established a valuation allowance against our carryforward benefits in the amount of $1.5 million at December 31, 2001 and $0.4 million at December 31, 2000.

At December 31, 2001, Labour Ready Temporary Services, Limited and Labour Ready Temporary Services UK, Limited have federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $2.3 million and $6.4 million with expiration dates through 2007 in Canada and indefinite in the UK.

COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

We lease substantially all of our dispatch offices. These leases generally provide for termination on 90 days notice and upon payment of three months rent. Certain of these leases have 1 year minimum terms and are cancelable thereafter upon 90 days notice and the payment of three months rent. Many leases require additional payments for taxes, insurance, maintenance and renewal options. Minimum lease commitments under terms of the leases at December 31, 2001 total approximately $8.6 million, substantially all of which would be payable in 2002. Rent expense for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999 was $19.0 million, $18.3 million and $13.6 million, respectively.

From time to time we are the subject of routine compliance audits by federal, state and local authorities relating to a variety of regulations including wage and hour laws, taxes, workers compensation, immigration and safety. We are also subject to legal proceedings in the ordinary course of our operations from time to time.

On July 19, 2000, Dale Kindle and Levoyd Williams filed an action in Georgia State Court, Fulton County. The suit was later amended, adding plaintiffs Quinton McGee and Jimmy T. Stringer (the "Kindle Litigation"). On August 17, 2000, Curtis Adkins filed an action in West Virginia State Court, Kanawha County (the "Adkins Litigation"). On October 3, 2000, Willie Wilkerson, Marco Medina and Arthur Demarchis filed an action in California State Court, Santa Clara County (the "Wilkerson Litigation"), and Anthony Flynn, Robert Hampton and Eugene Tonissen filed an action in New York State Court, Kings County (the "Flynn Litigation"). On February 14, 2001, Allen Yarbrough, Armando Ramirez, Phyllis Stennis, Earl Levels and Maurice Johnson filed an action in California State Court, Alameda County (the "Yarbrough Litigation").

The Kindle, Wilkerson and Flynn Litigation allege violations of state law in connection with the fees charged by us for voluntary use of the CDMs. The Kindle Litigation also alleges violations of state law in allegedly charging workers transportation and equipment rental fees and in purportedly failing to obtain consent of workers to exposure to hazardous chemicals. The Adkins Litigation and Yarbrough Litigation allege violation of federal or state wage and hour laws for failing to pay workers for all hours worked. In each case, the plaintiffs are present or former workers of ours and are seeking unspecified damages and certification of a class of workers. Except for the Adkins Litigation, the actions also request injunctive relief.

On January 26, 2001, the court in the Wilkerson Litigation sustained our demurrer on all counts, dismissing the plaintiffs' lawsuit in its entirety. On February 5, 2001, the plaintiffs filed an amended complaint in an effort to revive their claims.

On September 28, 2001 the court in the Adkins Litigation dismissed the case on the grounds that the plaintiffs had waived any right to seek judicial relief or a class action by agreeing to arbitrate all disputes with the company. The plaintiffs have filed an appeal of that dismissal with the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

In February 2001, the Washington Department of Labor and Industries issued an assessment against us for $498,000 claimed to be owing for workers' compensation premiums for 1998, as well as $236,000 in interest and penalties. We dispute the assessment and have filed an appeal. The Department of Labor and Industries has stated that it will also audit our payment of workers' compensation premiums for subsequent years. We believe that the Labor Industries assessment and audits will not have a material adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations, although no assurances can be made in this regard.

We believe that we have complied with all federal and state laws at issue and we intend to continue to vigorously defend each of these actions. We believe that none of these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations, although we can make no assurances in this regard.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

We have an Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP") to provide substantially all employees who have completed six months of service and meet certain limited qualifications, relative to weekly total hours and calendar months worked, an opportunity to purchase shares of our common stock through payroll deductions. The ESPP permits payroll deductions up to 10% of eligible after-tax compensation. Participant account balances are used to purchase shares of common stock at the lesser of 85% of the fair market value of shares on either the first day or the last day of each month. The ESPP expires on June 30, 2006. 1.9 million shares of common stock have been reserved for purchase under the ESPP. During 2001, 2000 and 1999, participants purchased 320, 273 and 98 shares in the plan for cash proceeds of $945, $1,313 and $1,063, respectively.

STOCK COMPENSATION PLANS

In June 1996 and March 2000, Labor Ready adopted the 1996 and 2000 Employee Stock Option and Incentive Plans (the "Plans"). In accounting for the Plans, we applied APB Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees", and related Interpretations. Under APB Opinion No. 25, because the exercise price of our employee stock options is not less than the market price of the underlying stock at the date of grant, no compensation cost is recognized.

The Plans state that the exercise price of each option may or may not be granted at an amount that equals the market value of the underlying stock at the date of grant. The majority of the options vest evenly over a four year period from the date of grant and then expire if not exercised within five years from the date of grant. 4,331 and 3,750 shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance under terms of the 1996 Plan and 2000 Plan. Subsequent to year end, the Board of Directors authorized an additional 1,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the 2000 Plan.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", requires us to provide pro forma information regarding net income and earnings per share as if compensation cost for our stock option plans had been determined in accordance with the fair value based method prescribed in SFAS No. 123. The fair value of option grants is estimated on the date of grant utilizing the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions for grants in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively: expected life of options of 5 years, expected volatility of 82%, 70%, and 89%, risk-free interest rates of 4.0%, 5.0% and 5.5%, and a 0% dividend yield.

Under the provisions of SFAS No. 123, our net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

	2001	2000	1999
Net Income
As reported	$ 9,215	$ 10,059	$ 23,124

Diluted	$ 0.18	$ 0.12	$ 0.43

That LABOR READY MIDWEST, INC. whose address is 1015 A Street, Tacoma, Washington98402 as

(Employer)

Principal, and GREAT AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio and authorized to transact a general surety business in the State of Minnesota, as Surety, are held and firmly bound to the State of Minnesota in the penal sum of EIGHT HUNDRED TWENTY-NINE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED THIRTY AND 00/100—dollars ($829,930.00) for which payment we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

WHEREAS in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the principal elected to self-insure, and made application for, or received from the commissioner of commerce of the state of Minnesota, a certificate to self-insure, upon furnishing of proof satisfactory to the commissioner of commerce of ability to self-insure and to compensate any or all employees of said principal for injury or disability, and their dependents for death incurred or sustained by said employees pursuant to the terms, provisions, and limitations of said statute;

NOW THEREFORE, the conditions of this bond or obligation are such that if principal shall pay and furnish compensation, pursuant to the terms, provisions, and limitations of said statute to its employees for injury or disability, and to the dependents of its employees, then this bond or obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

FURTHERMORE, it is understood and agreed that:

1. This bond may be amended, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce as to the identity of the principal herein named; and, by agreement of the parties hereto, as to the premium or rate of premium. Such amendment must be by endorsement upon, or rider to, this bond, executed by the surety and delivered to or filed with the commissioner.
 2. The surety does, by these presents, undertake and agree that the obligation of this bond shall cover and extend to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of said principal, as a self-insurer, to the extent of the penal sum herein named without regard to specific injuries, date or dates of injuries, happenings or events.
 3. The penal sum of this bond may be increased or decreased, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce, without impairing the obligation incurred under this bond for the overall coverage of the said principal, for all past, present, existing, and potential liability, as a self-insurer, without regard to specific injuries, date or dates of injuries, happenings or events, to the extent, in the aggregate, of the penal sum as increased or decreased. Such amendment must be by endorsement.
 4. The aggregate liability of the surety hereunder on all claims whatsoever shall not exceed the penal sum of this bond in any event.
 5. This bond shall be continuous in form and shall remain in full force and effect unless terminated as follows:
 - (a) The obligation of this bond shall terminate upon written notice of cancellation from the surety, given by registered or certified mail to the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred, including obligations resulting from claims which are incurred but not yet reported, as a self-insurer prior to effective date of termination. This termination is effective 60 days after receipt of notice of cancellation by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota.
 - (b) This bond shall also terminate upon the revocation of the certificate to self-insure, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred, including obligations resulting from claims which are incurred but not yet reported, as a self-insurer prior to effective date of termination. The principal and the surety, herein named, shall be immediately notified in writing by said commissioner, in the event of such revocation.
 6. Where the principal posts with the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, or the state treasurer, state of Minnesota, a replacement security deposit, in the form of a surety bond, irrevocable letter of credit, cash, securities, or any combination thereof, in the full amount as may be required by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, to secure all incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation of said principal under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the surety is released from obligations under the surety bond upon the date of acceptance by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, of said replacement security deposit.
 7. If the said principal shall suspend payment of workers' compensation benefits or shall become insolvent or a receiver shall be appointed for its business, or the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, issues a certificate of default, the undersigned surety will become liable for the workers' compensation obligations of the principal on the date benefits are suspended.

The surety shall begin payments within 14 days under paragraph 8, or 30 days under paragraph 10, after receipt of written notification by certified mail from the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, to begin payments under the terms of this bond.

8. If the surety exercises its option to administer claims, it shall pay benefits due to the principal's injured workers within 14 days of the receipt of the notification by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, without a formal award of a compensation judge, the commissioner of labor and industry, any intermediate appellate court, or the Minnesota supreme court and such payment will be a charge against the penal sum of the bond. Administrative and legal costs and payment of assessments incurred by the surety in discharging its obligations and payment of the principal's obligations for administration and legal expenses and payment of assessments under Minnesota Statutes, chapters 79A and 176, shall also be a charge against the penal sum of the bond.

9. If any part or provision of this bond shall be declared unenforceable or held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or parts of this bond.

10. If the surety does not give notice to the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) and the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, within five business days of receipt of written notification from the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, to exercise its option to administer claims pursuant to paragraph 8, then the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) will assume the payments of the workers' compensation obligations of the principal pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. Administrative, legal, actuarial, and other direct costs attributed to the principal shall also be a charge against the penal sum of the bond. The surety shall pay, within 30 days of the receipt of the notification by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, pursuant to paragraph 7, to the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) as an initial deposit an amount equal to 50 percent of the penal sum of the bond, and shall thereafter, upon notification from the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) that the balance of the initial deposit, including interest earned as provided below with respect to the segregated account, had fallen to ten percent of the penal sum of the bond, remit to the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) an amount equal to an additional ten percent of the penal sum of the bond. All such payments will be a charge against the penal sum of the bond. The initial deposit and all subsequent deposits shall be deposited by the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) into a segregated, interest-bearing account. These deposits, together with any interest earned thereon, shall be used to satisfy all obligations of the surety hereunder. Upon determination that there are no remaining reserves for any known claims covered under the bond, the balance of the account, including any interest earned thereon, shall be paid to the surety.

Said repayment of the funds to the surety will not discharge the bond, which shall remain in full force and effect as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred, including obligations resulting from claims which are incurred but not yet reported, as a self-insurer prior to the effective date of termination of the bond.

11. Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the principal's security deposit or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or the adequacy of the security or the reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal costs, arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, the principal, or the (self-insurer's security fund) (commercial self-insurance group security fund) shall be resolved by the commissioner of commerce pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapters 79A and 176.

CONTINUOUS BOND

a self-insured employer, as Principal, are hereby held and firmly bound to the Department of Workers' Claims (hereinafter "Department") in the aggregate sum of $ 750,000.00 the payment of which the Surety and Principal bind themselves, their successors and assigns, jointly and severally.

1. In accordance with Chapter 342 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes and the administrative regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Kentucky Workers' Compensation Act," as it may be amended from time to time), the Principal has been certified to self-insure its workers' compensation liability and files this bond to satisfy its obligation to provide an acceptable bond to secure, to the extent the Commissioner of the Department directs, the payment of workers' compensation liabilities as they are incurred. If the Principal shall discharge promptly and completely all of its liabilities under the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Act, then the obligations under this bond shall be null and void; otherwise the obligations remain in full force and effect, subject only to other provisions of this bond.

2. Surety agrees that the obligations of this bond shall extend to all past, present, future and potential liability of the Principal as an employer that is self-insured for workers' compensation liabilities in Kentucky.

3. This is a continuous bond and shall apply to new as well as existing workers' compensation liabilities incurred by the Principal until the bond is terminated by the Surety, as hereinafter provided, or until the Principal's status as a self-insurer has been revoked or terminated by the Commissioner, and in any of the above-described events the Surety shall remain obligated under the provisions of this bond for future payments of workers' compensation liabilities incurred by the Principal prior to termination or revocation. However, the Surety shall be released from its liability if the Principal provides replacement surety acceptable to the Department for payment of the liabilities covered by this bond.

4. This bond may be terminated by the Surety by filing a written notice of intent to terminate the bond in the Office of the Commissioner of the Department and mailing a copy of the notice to the Principal on or before the date of filing, in which event the Surety's obligation for new workers' compensation liabilities shall terminate sixty (60) days from the date of such filing with the Commissioner. If the Principal fails to file substitute security that is acceptable to the Commissioner within thirty (30) days of the filing of the Surety's notice, the Principal shall be in default and this bond may be called. Substitution of surety may be allowed only by novation whereby the new surety or other security assumes all liabilities of the Principal past, present, future and potential, under the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Act.

5. The Commissioner of the Department may make written demand personally or by mail upon the Principal and Surety, at the addresses indicated on the face of this bond, for any portion of the bond amount from time to time or for the full amount of the bond upon a default by the Principal in the performance of any of its obligations as a self-insured employer or upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, or receivership of either the Principal or the Surety. Payment shall be made within fifteen (15) business days after delivery of such demand to the Surety.

6. The amount of this bond may be increased or decreased by an agreement stating the effective date of the increase or decrease, executed by the Principal and Surety on the form specified by the Department, and approved by the Commissioner of the Department.

7. If the Surety makes payment to the Commissioner of the Department pursuant to the provisions of this bond, any unused balance may be released to the Surety by the Commissioner upon proof of payment and a lapse of time adequate to assure that the Principal's liabilities under the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Act have been fully satisfied and that each has been paid or lapsed under the Act.

8. The insolvency, bankruptcy or receivership of the Principal shall not relieve the Surety of its obligations under this bond.

9. Nothing stated herein shall be deemed to relieve the Principal of any liabilities arising under the Kentucky Workers' Compensation Act.

10. This bond shall be effective April 23, 2001 and shall replace, supersede and exonerate Great American Insurance Company Bond No. 1316090 which was executed on April 23, 2001.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Principal and Surety herein have caused this bond to be signed and executed in their names and on their behalf this 1st day of June, 2001.

REVOLVING REDUCING NOTE

$10,000,000.00

Tacoma, Washington
January 4, 2002

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned LABOR READY, INC. ("Borrower") promises to pay to the order of WELLS FARGO BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION ("Bank") at its office at 1201 Pacific Ave., 3rd Floor Tacoma, Washington 98402, or at such other place as the holder hereof may designate, in lawful money of the United States of America and in immediately available funds, the principal sum of Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00), or so much thereof as may be advanced and be outstanding, with interest thereon, to be computed on each advance from the date of its disbursement as set forth herein.

DEFINITIONS:

As used herein, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth after each, and any other term defined in this Note shall have the meaning set forth at the place defined:

(a) "Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or any other day on which commercial banks in Washington are authorized or required by law to close.

(b) "Fixed Rate Term" means a period commencing on a Business Day and continuing for 1,2,3 or 6 months as designated by Borrower, during which all or a portion of the outstanding principal balance of this Note bears interest determined in relation to LIBOR; provided however, that no Fixed Rate Term may be selected for a principal amount less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00); and provided further, that no Fixed Rate Term shall extend beyond the scheduled maturity date hereof. If any Fixed Rate Term would end on a day which is not a Business Day, then such Fixed Rate Term shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day.

(c) "LIBOR" means the rate per annum (rounded upward, if necessary, to the nearest whole 1/8 of 1 %) and determined pursuant to the following formula:

(i) "Base LIBOR" means the rate per annum for United States dollar deposits quoted by Bank as the Inter-Bank Market Offered Rate, with the understanding that such rate is quoted by Bank for the purpose of calculating effective rates of interest for loans making reference thereto, on the first day of a Fixed Rate Term for delivery of funds on said date for a period of time approximately equal to the number of days in such Fixed Rate Term and in an amount approximately equal to the principal amount to which such Fixed Rate Term applies. Borrower understands and agrees that Bank may base its quotation of the Inter-Bank Market Offered Rate upon such offers or other market indicators of the Inter-Bank Market as Bank in its discretion deems appropriate including, but not limited to, the rate offered for U.S. dollar deposits on the London Inter-Bank Market.

(ii) "LIBOR Reserve Percentage" means the reserve percentage prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (or any successor) for "Eurocurrency Liabilities" (as defined in Regulation D of the Federal Reserve Board, as amended), adjusted by Bank for expected changes in such reserve percentage during the applicable Fixed Rate Term.

(d) "Prime Rate" means at any time the rate of interest most recently announced within Bank at its principal office as its Prime Rate, with the understanding that the Prime Rate is one of Bank's base rates and serves as the basis upon which effective rates of interest are calculated for those loans making reference thereto, and is evidenced by the recording thereof after its announcement in such internal publication or publications as Bank may designate.

INTEREST:

(a) Interest. The outstanding principal balance of this Note shall bear interest (computed on the basis of a 360-day year, actual days elapsed) either (i) at a fluctuating rate per annum three quarters of one percent (0.75%) below the Prime Rate in effect from time to time, or (ii) at a fixed rate per annum determined by Bank to be one and eighty five hundredths percent (1.85%) above LIBOR in effect on the first day of the applicable Fixed Rate Term. When interest is determined in relation to the Prime Rate, each change in the rate of interest hereunder shall become effective on the date each Prime Rate change is announced within Bank. With respect to each LIBOR selection hereunder, Bank is hereby authorized to note the date, principal amount, interest rate and Fixed Rate Term applicable thereto and any payments made thereon on Bank's books and records (either manually or by electronic entry) and/or on any schedule attached to this Note, which notations shall be prima facie evidence of the accuracy of the information noted.

(b) Selection of Interest Rate Options. At any time any portion of this Note bears interest determined in relation to LIBOR, it may be continued by Borrower at the end of the Fixed Rate Term applicable thereto so that all or a portion thereof bears interest determined in relation to the Prime Rate or to LIBOR for a new Fixed Rate Term designated by Borrower. At any time any portion of this Note bears interest determined in relation to the Prime Rate, Borrower may convert all or a portion thereof so that it bears interest determined in relation to LIBOR for a Fixed Rate Term designated by Borrower. At such time as Borrower requests an advance hereunder or wishes to select a LIBOR option for all or a portion of the outstanding principal balance hereof, and at the end of each Fixed Rate Term, Borrower shall give Bank notice specifying: (i) the interest rate option selected by Borrower; (ii) the principal amount subject thereto; and (iii) for each LIBOR selection, the length of the applicable Fixed Rate Term. Any such notice may be given by telephone (or such other electronic method as Bank may permit) so long as, with respect to each LIBOR selection, (A) if requested by Bank, Borrower provides to Bank written confirmation thereof not later than three (3) Business Days after such notice is given, and (B) such notice is given to Bank prior to 10:00 a.m. on the first day of the Fixed Rate Term, or at a later time during any Business Day if Bank, at its sole option but without obligation to do so, accepts Borrower's notice and quotes a fixed rate to Borrower. If Borrower does not immediately accept a fixed rate when quoted by Bank, the quoted rate shall expire and any subsequent LIBOR request from Borrower shall be subject to a redetermination by Bank of the applicable fixed rate. If no specific designation of interest is made at the time any advance is requested hereunder or at the end of any Fixed Rate Term, Borrower shall be deemed to have made a Prime Rate interest selection for such advance or the principal amount to which such Fixed Rate Term applied.

(c) Taxes and Regulatory Costs. Borrower shall pay to Bank immediately upon demand, in addition to any other amounts due or to become due hereunder, any and all (i) withholdings, interest equalization taxes, stamp taxes or other taxes (except income and franchise taxes) imposed by any domestic or foreign governmental authority and related in any manner to LIBOR, and (ii) future, supplemental, emergency or other changes in the LIBOR Reserve Percentage, assessment rates imposed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or similar requirements or costs imposed by any domestic or foreign governmental authority or resulting from compliance by Bank with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any central bank or other governmental authority and related in any manner to LIBOR to the extent they are not included in the calculation of LIBOR. In determining which of the foregoing are attributable to any LIBOR option available to Borrower hereunder, any reasonable allocation made by Bank among its operations shall be conclusive and binding upon Borrower.

(d) Payment of Interest. Interest accrued on this Note shall be payable on the last day of each month, commencing January 31, 2002.

(e) Default Interest. From and after the maturity date of this Note, or such earlier date as all principal owing hereunder becomes due and payable by acceleration or otherwise, the outstanding principal balance of this Note shall bear interest until paid in full at an increased rate per annum (computed on the basis of a 360-day year, actual days elapsed) equal to four percent (4%) above the rate of interest from time to time applicable to this Note.

BORROWING AND REPAYMENT:

(a) Borrowing and Repayment. Borrower may from time to time during the term of this Note borrow, partially or wholly repay its outstanding borrowings, and reborrow, subject to all of the limitations, terms and conditions of this Note and of any document executed in connection with or governing this Note; provided however, that the total outstanding borrowings under this Note shall not at any time exceed the principal amount set forth above or such lesser amount as shall at any time be available hereunder. The unpaid principal balance of this obligation at any time shall be the total amounts advanced hereunder by the holder hereof less the amount of principal payments made hereon by or for any Borrower, which balance may be endorsed hereon from time to time by the holder. The outstanding principal balance of this Note shall be due and payable in full on January 31, 2006.

(b) Reductions in Availability. Notwithstanding the principal amount set forth above, the maximum principal amount available under this Note shall be reduced automatically and without further notice on the last day of each October, January, April and July, commencing April 30, 2002, by the amount of One Hundred Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($125,000.00). If the outstanding principal balance of this Note on any such date is greater than the new maximum principal amount then available hereunder, Borrower shall make a principal reduction on this Note on such date in an amount sufficient to reduce the then outstanding principal balance hereof to an amount not greater than said new maximum principal amount.

(c) Advances. Advances hereunder, to the total amount of the principal sum stated above, may be made by the holder at the oral or written request of (i) Joseph P. Sambataro, Jr., Steven C. Cooper, Bruce H. Marley, Kay Ward or Timothy Adams, any one acting alone, who are authorized to request advances and direct the disposition of any advances until written notice of the revocation of such authority is received by the holder at the office designated above, or (ii) any person, with respect to advances deposited to the credit of any deposit account of any Borrower, which advances, when so deposited, shall be conclusively presumed to have been made to or for the benefit of each Borrower regardless of the fact that persons other than those authorized to request advances may have authority to draw against such account. The holder shall have no obligation to determine whether any person requesting an advance is or has been authorized by any Borrower.

(d) Application of Payments. Each payment made on this Note shall be credited first, to any interest then due and second, to the outstanding principal balance hereof. All payments credited to principal shall be applied first, to the outstanding principal balance of this Note which bears interest determined in relation to the Prime Rate, if any, and second, to the outstanding principal balance of this Note which bears interest determined in relation to LIBOR, with such payments applied to the oldest Fixed Rate Term first.

PREPAYMENT:

(a) Prime Rate. Borrower may prepay principal on any portion of this Note which bears interest determined in relation to the Prime Rate at any time, in any amount and without penalty.

(b) LIBOR. Borrower may prepay principal on any portion of this Note which bears interest determined in relation to LIBOR at any time and in the minimum amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00); provided however, that if the outstanding principal balance of such portion of this Note is less than said amount, the minimum prepayment amount shall be the entire outstanding principal balance thereof. In consideration of Bank providing this prepayment option to Borrower, or if any such portion of this Note shall become due and payable at any time prior to the last day of the Fixed Rate Term applicable thereto by acceleration or otherwise, Borrower shall pay to Bank immediately upon demand a fee which is the sum of the discounted monthly differences for each month from the month of prepayment through the month in which such Fixed Rate Term matures, calculated as follows for each such month:

(i) Determine the amount of interest which would have accrued each month on the amount prepaid at the interest rate applicable to such amount had it remained outstanding until the last day of the Fixed Rate Term applicable thereto.

(ii) Subtract from the amount determined in (i) above the amount of interest which would have accrued for the same month on the amount prepaid for the remaining term of such Fixed Rate Term at LIBOR in effect on the date of prepayment for new loans made for such term and in a principal amount equal to the amount prepaid.

(iii) If the result obtained in (ii) for any month is greater than zero, discount that difference by LIBOR used in (ii) above.

Each Borrower acknowledges that prepayment of such amount may result in Bank incurring additional costs, expenses and/or liabilities, and that it is difficult to ascertain the full extent of such costs, expenses and/or liabilities. Each Borrower, therefore, agrees to pay the above-described prepayment fee and agrees that said amount represents a reasonable estimate of the prepayment costs, expenses and/or liabilities of Bank. If Borrower fails to pay any prepayment fee when due, the amount of such prepayment fee shall thereafter bear interest until paid at a rate per annum two percent (2.0%) above the Prime Rate in effect from time to time (computed on the basis of a 360-day year, actual days elapsed). Each change in the rate of interest on any such past due prepayment fee shall become effective on the date each Prime Rate change is announced within Bank.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT:

This Note is made pursuant to and is subject to the terms and conditions of that certain Credit Agreement between Borrower and Bank dated as of January 4, 2002, as amended from time to time (the "Credit Agreement"). Any default in the payment or performance of any obligation under this Note, or any defined event of default under the Credit Agreement, shall constitute an "Event of Default" under this Note.

MISCELLANEOUS:

(a) Remedies. Upon the sale, transfer, hypothecation, assignment or other encumbrance, whether voluntary, involuntary or by operation of law, of all or any interest in any real property securing this Note, or upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, the holder of this Note, at the holder's option, may declare all sums of principal and interest outstanding hereunder to be immediately due and payable without presentment, demand, notice of nonperformance, notice of protest, protest or notice of dishonor, all of which are expressly waived by each Borrower, and the obligation, if any, of the holder to extend any further credit hereunder shall immediately cease and terminate. Each Borrower shall pay to the holder immediately upon demand the full amount of all payments, advances, charges, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees (to include outside counsel fees and all allocated costs of the holders in-house counsel), expended or incurred by the holder in connection with the enforcement of the holder's rights and/or the collection of any amounts which become due to the holder under this Note, and the prosecution or defense of any action in any way related to this Note, including without limitation, any action for declaratory relief, whether incurred at the trial or appellate level, in an arbitration proceeding or otherwise, and including any of the foregoing incurred in connection with any bankruptcy proceeding (including without limitation, any adversary proceeding, contested matter or motion brought by Bank or any other person) relating to any Borrower or any other person or entity.

- (b) Obligations Joint and Several. Should more than one person or entity sign this Note as a Borrower, the obligations of each such Borrower shall be joint and several.
- (c) Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington.

ORAL AGREEMENTS OR ORAL COMMITMENTS TO LOAN MONEY, EXTEND CREDIT OR TO FORBEAR ENFORCING REPAYMENT OF A DEBT ARE NOT ENFORCEABLE UNDER WASHINGTON LAW.

This Note is secured by, among other collateral, a Deed of Trust dated January 4, 2002.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Note as of the date first written above.

Borrower's obligation to repay advances under the Revolving Reducing Loan shall be evidenced by a promissory note substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto ("Revolving Reducing Note"), all terms of which are incorporated herein by this reference.

(b) Borrowing and Repayment. Borrower may from time to time during the term of the Revolving Reducing Loan borrow, partially or wholly repay its outstanding borrowings, and reborrow, subject to all of the limitations, terms and conditions contained herein or in the Revolving Reducing Note; provided however, that the total outstanding borrowings under the Revolving Reducing Loan shall not at any time exceed the maximum principal amount available thereunder, as set forth above and as reduced from time to time in accordance with the terms of the Revolving Reducing Note.

SECTION 1.2. INTEREST/FEES.

(c) Unused Commitment Fee. Borrower shall pay to Bank a fee equal to three hundred fifty thousandths percent (0.350%) per annum (computed on the basis of a 360-day year, actual days elapsed) on the average daily unused amount of the Revolving Reducing Loan, which fee shall be calculated on a quarterly basis by Bank and shall be due and payable by Borrower in arrears within thirty (30) days after each billing is sent by Bank.

SECTION 1.3. COLLATERAL.

As security for all indebtedness of Borrower to Bank under the Revolving Reducing Loan, Borrower hereby grants to Bank a lien of not less than first priority on that certain real property located at 1015 A Street, Tacoma, WA 98402.

All of the foregoing shall be evidenced by and subject to the terms of such security agreements, financing statements, deeds of trust and other documents as Bank shall reasonably require, all in form and substance satisfactory to Bank. Borrower shall reimburse Bank immediately upon demand for all costs and expenses incurred by Bank in connection with any of the foregoing security, including without limitation, filing and recording fees and costs of appraisals, audits and title insurance.

ARTICLE II
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Borrower makes the following representations and warranties to Bank, which representations and warranties shall survive the execution of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect until the full and final payment, and satisfaction and discharge, of all obligations of Borrower to Bank subject to this Agreement.

SECTION 2.1. LEGAL STATUS. Borrower is a corporation, duly organized and existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Washington, and is qualified or licensed to do business (and is in good standing as a foreign corporation, if applicable) in all jurisdictions in which such qualification or licensing is required or in which the failure to so qualify or to be so licensed could have a material adverse effect on Borrower.

SECTION 2.2. AUTHORIZATION AND VALIDITY. This Agreement and each promissory note, contract, instrument and other document required hereby or at any time hereafter delivered to Bank in connection herewith (collectively, the "Loan Documents") have been duly authorized, and upon their execution and delivery in accordance with the provisions hereof will constitute legal, valid and binding agreements and obligations of Borrower or the party which executes the same, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.

SECTION 2.3. NO VIOLATION. The execution, delivery and performance by Borrower of each of the Loan Documents do not violate any provision of any law or regulation, or contravene any provision of the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of Borrower, or result in any breach of or default under any contract, obligation, indenture or other instrument to which Borrower is a party or by which Borrower may be bound.

SECTION 2.4. LITIGATION. There are no pending, or to the best of Borrower's knowledge threatened, actions, claims, investigations, suits or proceedings by or before any governmental authority, arbitrator, court or administrative agency which could have a material adverse effect on the financial condition or operation of Borrower other than those disclosed by Borrower to Bank in writing prior to the date hereof.

SECTION 2.5. CORRECTNESS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENT. The financial statement of Borrower dated June 30, 2001, a true copy of which has been delivered by

Borrower to Bank prior to the date hereof, (a) is complete and correct in all material respects and presents fairly the financial condition of Borrower, (b) discloses all liabilities of Borrower that are required to be reflected or reserved against under generally accepted accounting principles, whether liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, and (c) has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since the date of such financial statement there has been no material adverse change in the financial condition of Borrower, nor has Borrower mortgaged, pledged, granted a security interest in or otherwise encumbered any of its assets or properties except in favor of Bank or as otherwise permitted by Bank in writing.

SECTION 2.6. INCOME TAX RETURNS. Borrower has no knowledge of any pending assessments or adjustments of its income tax payable with respect to any year.

SECTION 2.7. NO SUBORDINATION. There is no agreement, indenture, contract or instrument to which Borrower is a party or by which Borrower may be bound that requires the subordination in right of payment of any of Borrower's obligations subject to this Agreement to any other obligation of Borrower.

SECTION 2.8. PERMITS, FRANCHISES. Borrower possesses, and will hereafter possess, all permits, consents, approvals, franchises and licenses required and rights to all trademarks, trade names, patents, and fictitious names, if any, necessary to enable it to conduct the business in which it is now engaged in compliance with applicable law.

SECTION 2.9. ERISA. Borrower is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended or recodified from time to time ("ERISA"); Borrower has not violated any provision of any defined employee pension benefit plan (as defined in ERISA) maintained or contributed to by Borrower (each, a "Plan"); no Reportable Event as defined in ERISA has occurred and is continuing with respect to any Plan initiated by Borrower; Borrower has met its minimum funding requirements under ERISA with respect to each Plan; and each Plan will be able to fulfill its benefit obligations as they come due in accordance with the Plan documents and under generally accepted accounting principles.

SECTION 2.10. OTHER OBLIGATIONS. Borrower is not in default on any obligation for borrowed money, any purchase money obligation or any other material lease, commitment, contract, instrument or obligation.

SECTION 2.11. ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS. SECTION 7.6. ENTIRE AGREEMENT; AMENDMENT. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement between Borrower and Bank with respect to each credit subject hereto and supersede all prior negotiations, communications, discussions and correspondence concerning the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be amended or modified only in writing signed by each party hereto.

SECTION 7.7. NO THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. This Agreement is made and entered into for the sole protection and benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and no other person or entity shall be a third party beneficiary of, or have any direct or indirect cause of action or claim in connection with, this Agreement or any other of the Loan Documents to which it is not a party.

SECTION 7.8. TIME. Time is of the essence of each and every provision of this Agreement and each other of the Loan Documents.

SECTION 7.9. SEVERABILITY OF PROVISIONS. If any provision of this Agreement shall be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity without invalidating the remainder of such provision or any remaining provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.10. COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

SECTION 7.11. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington.

SECTION 7.12. ARBITRATION.

(a) Arbitration. The parties hereto agree, upon demand by any party, to submit to binding arbitration all claims, disputes and controversies between or among them (and their respective employees, officers, directors, attorneys, and other agents), whether in tort, contract or otherwise arising out of or relating to in any way (i) the loan and related Loan Documents which are the subject of this Agreement and its negotiation, execution, collateralization, administration, repayment, modification, extension, substitution, formation, inducement, enforcement, default or termination; or (ii) requests for additional credit.

(b) Governing Rules. Any arbitration proceeding will (i) proceed in a location in Washington selected by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"); (ii) be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code), notwithstanding any conflicting choice of law provision in any of the documents between the parties; and (iii) be conducted by the AAA, or such other administrator as the parties shall mutually agree upon, in accordance with the AAA's commercial dispute resolution procedures, unless the claim or counterclaim is at least $1,000,000.00 exclusive of claimed interest, arbitration fees and costs in which case the arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the AAA's optional procedures for large, complex commercial disputes (the commercial dispute resolution procedures or the optional procedures for large, complex commercial disputes to be referred to, as applicable, as the "Rules"). If there is any inconsistency between the terms hereof and the Rules, the terms and procedures set forth herein shall control. Any party who fails or refuses to submit to arbitration following a demand by any other party shall bear all costs and expenses incurred by such other party in compelling arbitration of any dispute. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a waiver by any party that is a bank of the protections afforded to it under 12 U.S.C. §91 or any similar applicable state law.

(c) No Waiver of Provisional Remedies, Self-Help and Foreclosure. The arbitration requirement does not limit the right of any party to (i) foreclose against real or personal property collateral; (ii) exercise self-help remedies relating to collateral or proceeds of collateral such as setoff or repossession; or (iii) obtain provisional or ancillary remedies such as replevin, injunctive relief, attachment or the appointment of a receiver, before during or after the pendency of any arbitration proceeding. This exclusion does not constitute a waiver of the right or obligation of any party to submit any dispute to arbitration or reference hereunder, including those arising from the exercise of the actions detailed in sections (i), (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph.

(d) Arbitrator Qualifications and Powers. Any arbitration proceeding in which the amount in controversy is $5,000,000.00 or less will be decided by a single arbitrator selected according to the Rules, and who shall not render an award of greater than $5,000,000.00. Any dispute in which the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000.00 shall be decided by majority vote of a panel of three arbitrators; provided however, that all three arbitrators must actively participate in all hearings and deliberations. The arbitrator will be a neutral attorney licensed in the State of Washington or a neutral retired judge of the state or federal judiciary of Washington, in either case with a minimum of ten years experience in the substantive law applicable to the subject matter of the dispute to be arbitrated. The arbitrator will determine whether or not an issue is arbitratable and will give effect to the statutes of limitation in determining any claim. In any arbitration proceeding the arbitrator will decide (by documents only or with a hearing at the arbitrator's discretion) any pre-hearing motions which are similar to motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim or motions for summary adjudication. The arbitrator shall resolve all disputes in accordance with the substantive law of Washington and may grant any remedy or relief that a court of such state could order or grant within the scope hereof and such ancillary relief as is necessary to make effective any award. The arbitrator shall also have the power to award recovery of all costs and fees, to impose sanctions and to take such other action as the arbitrator deems necessary to the same extent a judge could pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Washington Rules of Civil Procedure or other applicable law. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The institution and maintenance of an action for judicial relief or pursuit of a provisional or ancillary remedy shall not constitute a waiver of the right of any party, including the plaintiff, to submit the controversy or claim to arbitration if any other party contests such action for judicial relief.

(e) Discovery. In any arbitration proceeding discovery will be permitted in accordance with the Rules. All discovery shall be expressly limited to matters directly relevant to the dispute being arbitrated and must be completed no later than 20 days before the hearing date and within 180 days of the filing of the dispute with the AAA. Any requests for an extension of the discovery periods, or any discovery disputes, will be subject to final determination by the arbitrator upon a showing that the request for discovery is essential for the party's presentation and that no alternative means for obtaining information is available.

(f) Class Proceedings and Consolidations. The resolution of any dispute arising pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be determined by a separate arbitration proceeding and such dispute shall not be consolidated with other disputes or included in any class proceeding.

(g) Payment of Arbitration Costs And Fees. The arbitrator shall award all costs and expenses of the arbitration proceeding.

(h) Miscellaneous. To the maximum extent practicable, the AAA, the arbitrators and the parties shall take all action required to conclude any arbitration proceeding within 180 days of the filing of the dispute with the AAA. No arbitrator or other party to an arbitration proceeding may disclose the existence, content or results thereof, except for disclosures of information by a party required in the ordinary course of its business or by applicable law or regulation. If more than one agreement for arbitration by or between the parties potentially applies to a dispute, the arbitration provision most directly related to the Loan Documents or the subject matter of the dispute shall control. This arbitration provision shall survive termination, amendment or expiration of any of the Loan Documents or any relationship between the parties.

SECTION 7.13. CONFIDENTIALITY.

(a) Confidential Information. As used herein, the term "Confidential Information" shall mean all non-public, confidential and/or proprietary information of Borrower, now or at any time hereafter provided to Bank by Borrower, or any of Borrower's officers, employees, agents or representatives, in connection with this Agreement.

(b) Use of Information. The Confidential Information will be used by Bank solely for the purpose of evaluating Borrower's credit requests and/or Bank's ongoing credit accommodations to Borrower.

(c) Confidentiality. 21

(d) Legal Process. In the event that Bank or any of its representatives becomes legally compelled to disclose any of the Confidential Information pursuant to Section 7.13(c)(v) above, hereof, then Bank, except as otherwise required by law, will provide notice thereof to Borrower so that Borrower, at its sole option (but without obligation to do so), may attempt to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(e) Public Information. The confidentiality requirement set forth herein shall not extend to any portion of the Confidential Information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by Bank or its representatives; (b) is or becomes available to Bank on a non-confidential basis by Borrower or any officer, employee, agent or representative of Borrower prior to its disclosure by Bank; or (c) is or becomes available to Bank on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Borrower.
