PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
Wednesday, May 17, 2006

The Board of Directors of Labor Ready, Inc., a Washington corporation, is soliciting your proxy to vote your shares at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held at 10:00 a.m. (Pacific Daylight Time) on Wednesday, May 17, 2006, at the corporate headquarters of Labor Ready, Inc., 1015 A Street, Tacoma, Washington, and at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement contains the required information under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and is designed to assist you in voting your shares.

Revocation of Proxies. If you execute a proxy, you will retain the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted. You may revoke or change your proxy before it is voted by (i) sending a written revocation to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at P.O. Box 2910, Tacoma, WA 98401; (ii) submitting a proxy with a later date; (iii) delivering a written request in person to return the executed proxy; or, (iv) attending and voting at the annual meeting. Your right to revoke your proxy is not limited by or subject to compliance with a specified formal procedure, but you should give written notice to the Secretary of the Company at or before the annual meeting so that the number of shares represented by proxy can be recomputed.

Voting of Proxies. If you properly execute and return the enclosed proxy card, the individuals named on the proxy card (your proxies) will vote your shares in the manner you indicate. We urge you to specify your choices by marking the appropriate box on the enclosed proxy card; if you sign and return the proxy card without indicating your instructions, your shares will be voted FOR PROPOSAL 1 (the election of directors nominated by the Board of Directors), FOR PROPOSAL 2 (ratification of selection of independent registered public accounting firm) and with respect to any other business that may come before the meeting, the named proxies will vote your shares in accordance with their best judgment. In the vote on the election of the director nominees (Proposal 1), you may vote "For" all or some of the nominees or your vote may be "Withheld" with respect to one or more of the nominees. For the proposal to ratify the selection of the Company's independent registered accounting firm (Proposal 2), you may vote "For", "Against" or "Abstain".

Quorum. A quorum is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast at the annual meeting are present in person or by proxy, a quorum will exist. Shares represented by proxies containing an abstention as to any matter will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Similarly, shares held by brokers or nominees for the accounts of others as to which voting instructions have not been given for that matter and for which the broker does not have discretionary voting authority for that matter ("Broker Non-Votes") will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Brokers may exercise discretion to vote shares as to which instructions are not given with respect to the proposals regarding the election of directors and the ratification of the selection of the independent registered accounting firm.

Voting Requirements to Approve Each Proposal. Nominees for election as directors who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected directors. There is no cumulative voting for the Company's directors. The proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered accounting firm will be approved under Washington law if the number of votes cast "For" the matter exceeds the number of votes cast "Against" the matter.

Effect of Abstentions, Withheld Votes and Broker Non-Votes. Abstentions, withheld votes and Broker Non-Votes will have no practical effect in the election of directors and in the ratification of appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP because abstentions, withheld votes and Broker Non-Votes do not represent votes cast "For" or "Against" the respective proposal.

Record Date. Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 29, 2006, are entitled to vote at the annual meeting. On March 29, 2006, the Company had 54,143,206 shares of common stock outstanding. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote.

Discretionary Authority. If any nominee for director is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, or if any matters not specified in this proxy statement come before the meeting, eligible shares will be voted as specified by the named proxies pursuant to discretionary authority granted in the proxy. At the time this proxy statement was printed we were not aware of any other matters to be voted on.

Solicitation of Proxies. Proxies may be solicited by officers, directors and regular supervisory and executive employees of the Company, none of whom will receive any additional compensation for their services.

Mailing and Forwarding of Proxy Materials. On or about April 14, 2006, we mailed this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card to shareholders. We will arrange with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation material to certain beneficial owners of the common stock and will reimburse such brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that they incur as a result of forwarding the proxy materials.

Executive Offices. The principal executive office of the Company is located at 1015 A Street, Tacoma, WA 98402. The mailing address of the principal executive office is P.O. Box 2910, Tacoma, WA 98401. The telephone number for the Company is (253) 383-9101.

PROPOSAL 2. RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 29, 2006. Services provided to the Company and its subsidiaries by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in fiscal 2005 and 2004 are described under "Fees Paid to Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm for Fiscal 2005 and 2004" below. Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will be present at the annual meeting to make a statement, if they desire to do so, and respond to appropriate questions by shareholders. The ratification of the Board's selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 29, 2006, will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the ratification exceeds the numbers of votes cast against ratification. Proxies will be voted "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent registered accounting firm for fiscal 2006 unless other instructions are indicated on your proxy. In the event shareholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider the appointment. The Audit Committee reserves the right to change its independent registered public accounting firm without seeking shareholder approval if it determines that such change is in the best interests of the Company.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm prior to the engagement of the independent accountants with respect to such services. The Company's independent accountants may be engaged to provide non-audit services only after the Audit Committee has first considered the proposed engagement and has determined in each instance that the proposed services are not prohibited by applicable regulations, and that the accountants' independence will not be materially impaired as a result of having provided such services. In making this determination, the Audit Committee shall take into consideration whether a reasonable investor, knowing all relevant facts and circumstances, would conclude that the accountants' exercise of objective and impartial judgment on all issues encompassed within the accountants' engagement would be materially impaired. The Audit Committee may delegate its approval authority to pre-approve services provided by the independent accountants to one or more of the members of the Audit Committee, provided that any such approvals are presented to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

GOVERNANCE OF THE COMPANY

Meetings and Committees of the Board

Board of Directors. The Board of Directors consists of a majority of "independent directors" as such term is defined in the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") corporate governance standards. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Grinstein, McChesney, Sullivan, Steele¹, Tall, and Ms. McKibbin do not have a material relationship with the Company and are independent within the meaning of the Company's director independence standards. These standards reflect exactly the NYSE director independence standards, as currently in effect.

Effective at the Annual Shareholders Meeting Mr. Cooper will become Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Sambataro will cease being an officer or employee of the Company. Assuming election by the shareholders, Mr. Cooper will be a "management director" and Mr. Sambataro will be a "non-management director" as those terms are defined in the NYSE corporate governance standards.

The Board of Directors met eight times during fiscal year 2005. The non-management directors regularly meet in executive session, at which the Chairman of the Board presides, and through their participation on the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Each director is expected to attend the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors has appointed the Compensation Committee to review and recommend executive compensation and to serve as the administrative committee for the Company's stock option and stock purchase plans. The Compensation Committee, consisting of Mr. McChesney, who chairs the committee, and Mr. Steele and Ms. McKibbin, met seven times during fiscal year 2005. Effective January 2006, Mr. Tall was named as a member of the Compensation Committee and Ms. McKibbin moved from the Compensation Committee to the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has adopted a charter governing the duties and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee. A copy of the Compensation Committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.laborready.com. The report of the Compensation Committee is included in this proxy statement on page 16.

Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has appointed the Audit Committee to consider the adequacy of our internal controls and the integrity of our financial reporting. The Audit Committee is also responsible for appointing, approving the fee arrangements of, and monitoring the independence, qualifications and performance of, the Company's independent public accountants. The Audit Committee met eight times during fiscal year 2005. The Committee consisted of Messrs. Grinstein (its current Chair), Sullivan and, prior to his death in July 2005, Mr. Schafer (its former Chair). Effective January 2006 Ms. McKibbin became a member of the Audit Committee.

The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that (i) each member of the Audit Committee is "independent" within the meanings of Rule 10A-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the corporate governance rules of the New York Stock Exchange; (ii) no member of the committee has a material relationship with the Company; (iii) each member of the committee is "financially literate" under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange; and, (iv) Mr. Grinstein and Mr. Sullivan are each an "audit committee financial expert" as such term is defined in Item 401 of Regulation S-K. The board has also determined that Mr. Grinstein's service on more than three public company audit committees does not impair his ability to serve on our Audit Committee.

The Board of Directors has adopted a charter governing the duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee. A copy of the Audit Committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.laborready.com. The report of the Audit Committee is included in this proxy statement on page 18.

¹ Mr. Steele is a director and former executive of ABM Industries, a customer of ours. Our Board has determined that this relationship is not material because annual revenues from ABM are less than 2% of ABM's consolidated annual gross revenues.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors has appointed the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, which is responsible for (i) nominating directors consistent with criteria approved by the Board, (ii) establishing guidelines on the composition and function of Board committees, (iii) developing and recommending to the Board of Directors corporate governance principles applicable to the Company, (iv) reviewing and recommending compensation for members of the Board and (v) overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, which currently consists of Mr. Steele, who chairs the committee, Messrs. Grinstein, McChesney, Sullivan, Tall, and Ms. McKibbin, met five times during 2005. Each of the members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is independent within the meaning of the NYSE corporate governance rules. The Board of Directors has adopted a charter governing the duties and responsibilities of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. A copy of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.laborready.com.

Executive Committee. The Board of Directors has appointed an Executive Committee, to which is delegated the authority to act on behalf of the Board of Directors as necessary when the Board is not in session and it would be impractical to call a meeting of the Board. The Executive Committee, which currently consists of Mr. Sullivan, who chairs the committee, and Messrs. McChesney, Steele, Grinstein and Sambataro, met eight times during fiscal year 2005.

Consideration of Director Nominees. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by shareholders. Candidates recommended by shareholders are evaluated on the same basis as are candidates recommended by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Any shareholder wishing to nominate a candidate should provide the following information in a letter addressed to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee in care of the Company's General Counsel no later than 120 days prior to the one year anniversary of the date the proxy statement mailed in connection with the most recent annual meeting (nominations for the 2007 annual meeting must be submitted no later than December 15, 2006,) (i) the name and address of the shareholder recommending the person to be nominated, (ii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of Labor Ready, including the number of shares held and the period of holding, (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and the recommended nominee, (iv) information as to any plans or proposals of the type required to be disclosed in Schedule 13D (i.e., plans involving acquisitions of Labor Ready's securities and/or plans involving a potential merger or change of control transaction) and any proposals that the nominee proposes to bring to the Board of Directors if so elected, (v) any other information regarding the recommended nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A promulgated by the Securities Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, (vi) the consent of the recommended nominee to serve as a director of Labor Ready if so elected. Additional information may be requested to assist the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee in determining the eligibility of a proposed candidate to serve as a director. This may include requiring that a prospective nominee complete a director and officer questionnaire and provide any follow-up information requested. In addition, the notice must meet all other requirements contained in Labor Ready's Bylaws, if any.

Board Membership Criteria. Our Corporate Governance Guidelines adopted by our Board of Directors, a copy of which is available at the Company's website at www.laborready.com and available without charge to shareholders upon request to Investor Relations, Labor Ready, Inc., P.O. Box 2910, Tacoma, WA 98401, include the criteria our Board believes are important in the selection of director nominees. While the Board has not established any minimum qualifications for nominees, the Board does consider the composition of the Board as a whole, the requisite characteristics (including independence, diversity, experience in industry, finance, administration and operations) of each candidate, and the skills and expertise of its current members while taking into account the overall operating efficiency of the Board and its committees.

In June 2004 the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee developed a list of qualified Board candidates. A preliminary list of eight candidates was developed. Following an interview and vetting process by the Committee, three candidates were presented to the Board for consideration. The culmination of this process was that Mr. Grinstein was appointed to the Board in November 2004, bringing the total number of directors to seven. After the death of Carl Schaefer in July 2005 the Board again reviewed both its criteria and available candidates. Following another interview and vetting process by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, two candidates were presented to the Board for consideration. The culmination of this process was that Mr. Tall was appointed to the Board effective January 2006. Both Messrs. Grinstein and Tall were recommended by independent directors. In February 2006, based on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and in connection with the promotion of Mr. Cooper to the position of Chief Executive Officer, the Board nominated him for election to the Board of Directors effective at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This will bring the number of directors to eight which the Board believes is an appropriate and effective size.

Committee Membership. The Board appoints committee chairs and members on an annual basis with consideration given to the qualifications and preferences of individual directors. In its deliberations, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is aware that (i) each member of the Audit Committee must be financially literate, as such qualification is interpreted by the Board in its business judgment, (ii) each member of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee must be independent within the meaning of the NYSE corporate governance rules, (iii) each member of the Audit Committee must meet the independence standards set forth in Rule 10A-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (iv) at least one member of the Audit Committee must be a person who satisfies the definition of an "audit committee financial expert" as set out in Item 401 of Regulation S-K.

Process for Identifying and Evaluating Nominees. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee may employ a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee regularly assesses the size of the Board, the need for particular expertise on the Board, the upcoming election cycle of the Board and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event that vacancies are anticipated or arise, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee considers various potential candidates for director which may come to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee's attention through current Board members, professional search firms, shareholders or other persons. These candidates will be evaluated at regular or special meetings of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and may be considered at any time during the year.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider candidates recommended by shareholders when the nominations are properly submitted, under the criteria summarized above in "Consideration of Director Nominees". Included in this discussion is a description of the deadlines and procedures for shareholder submissions of director nominees. Following verification of the shareholder status of persons proposing candidates, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will make an initial analysis of the qualifications of any candidate recommended by shareholders or others pursuant to the criteria summarized above to determine whether the candidate is qualified for service on the Board before deciding to undertake a complete evaluation of the candidate. If a shareholder or professional search firm in connection with the nomination of a director candidate provides any materials, such materials will be forwarded to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee as part of its review. If the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee determine that additional consideration is warranted, it may request the third-party search firm to gather additional information about the prospective nominee's background and experience and to report its findings to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Other than the verification of compliance with procedures and shareholder status, and the initial analysis performed by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will treat a potential candidate nominated by a shareholder like any other potential candidate during the review process. In connection with this evaluation, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will determine whether to interview the prospective nominee. If warranted, one or more members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and others as appropriate, will interview prospective nominees in person or by telephone. After completing this evaluation and interview, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will make a recommendation to the full Board as to the persons who should be nominated by the Board, and the Board will determine the nominees after considering the recommendation and report of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

Equity Compensation Plans

We maintain several plans pursuant to which incentive and non-qualified stock options and restricted stock have been granted in the past and may be granted in the future. Participation in these plans is generally limited to our full-time employees and our directors. The option exercise price of all options granted under our plans has been 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant. The majority of these options vest evenly over a four-year period from the date of grant and expire if not exercised within five years after the date of grant. We also have an employee stock purchase plan (ESPP) under which employees may purchase our shares at a discount to their market value, as more fully described below.

The following table summarizes information, as of December 30, 2005, relating to equity compensation plans of the Company pursuant to which grants of options, restricted stock, SARs or other rights to acquire shares may be granted from time to time.

Non-employee Directors appointed during the year are entitled to receive a pro rata grant as follows: 100% if appointed prior to the first quarterly meeting, 75% if appointed prior to the second quarterly meeting, 50% if appointed prior to the third quarterly meeting, and 25% if appointed prior to the last quarterly meeting of the year.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation²

The Company's executive compensation is determined by a Compensation Committee comprised of three independent members of the Board of Directors. Members of the Compensation Committee during 2005 were Mr. McChesney, who chaired the committee, and Ms. McKibbin and Mr. Steele.

Executive Compensation Policies

The Company's executive compensation policies are designed and implemented to attract, motivate and retain senior executives. In December 2003 the Compensation Committee engaged an outside compensation consultant from a national firm to advise on restructuring the Company's short-term and long-term incentive plans for senior executives. The consultant did extensive research and analysis and met with the Committee numerous times over a period of months. The Committee has continued to work with the consultant in revising and implementing the Company's executive compensation. Based on the Board's feedback and further research, the Committee prepared final recommendations for executive base compensation and short-term and long-term executive incentive plans that were approved by all of the independent members of the Board of Directors in March 2004 and were further modified and approved by all independent directors in December 2004 and December 2005.

The Company's compensation philosophy primarily rewards Company performance but also involves an independent evaluation of individual performance. The short-term incentive plan and the stock option portion of the long-term incentive plan are directly linked to Company performance. The combination of base salaries and the short-term and long-term incentive plans are intended to provide an opportunity for executives to earn competitive compensation which is closely linked to overall Company performance. The three components are designed to provide executive compensation that is competitive and is expected to generally place the executives at or near the mid-point for total compensation paid to executives by similar companies in related industries. However, the Committee exercises objective judgments in establishing the base compensation, targets and equity awards described below.

- 2 The report of the Compensation Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under either the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (together, the "Acts"), except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates such report by reference; and further, such report shall not otherwise be deemed filed under the Acts.

The Committee has adopted the practice of regularly reviewing "tally sheets" which consist of a summary of all direct and indirect compensation paid to the executive officers and has concluded that the total compensation is reasonable and not excessive.

Base Compensation

In setting base salaries the Committee reviewed information compiled from three different compensation surveys selected by its independent consultant involving companies in related industries with similar annual revenues. After review of the information provided by the independent consultant retained by the Committee, discussion with the CEO with respect to the other executive officers and the application of the collective subjective judgments of the Committee relating to the executives' prior performance and experience, base salaries were set in December 2004 at levels generally at or near the mid-point for the combined three surveys. The Committee's policy is to review base salaries every two years.

Short-Term Incentive Plan

The short-term incentive plan was initially adopted in 2003 and has undergone minor revisions each year. For each year, the Committee establishes performance targets which are based on the increase in net after-tax profit over the corresponding profit measurement in the prior year. Individual target bonuses are set within a range of 25% to 45% of base compensation. In addition to the targets the Committee sets a threshold (50% of target) below which no bonus is payable and a maximum point (125% of target) at which bonuses are capped. Thus, no bonus will be earned unless the Company achieves a significant increase in net after-tax profit. Once the base amount is determined, an individual multiplier between 0.5 and 1.2 may be applied. The purpose of the multiplier is to make adjustments for variations in individual performances based on the subjective review of the Committee. After applying the multiplier, the maximum payout is 50% of base salary for each executive. At least 25% of the short-term incentive payment is in the form of Company stock.

Long-Term Executive Equity Incentive Plan

The long-term executive equity incentive plan, which was first implemented in 2004 as part of the Committee's study and overall revisions to executive compensation that commenced in 2003, consists of annual grants of restricted stock and stock options together with ownership retention requirements. The Committee in conjunction with its independent consultant, after a review of data compiled from the same three compensation studies described above for base salaries, determined that the annual equity grants should be set at multiples of base compensation ranging from 1.0 to 1.5 depending upon the executive position and experience and the subjective evaluations of the Committee. Each annual award consists of 50% in the form of restricted stock and 50% in stock options, with the per share values being determined in accordance with a Black-Scholes based valuation method. Both the restricted stock and stock options are subject to vesting equally over three years. Executives are further required to retain 75% of the net shares received through Company options exercises or restricted stock vesting, less an amount equal to the value of shares that would need to be sold to pay taxes due and the option exercise price. The ownership retention period for awards received in 2004 was phased in at two years and is four years for awards granted at the beginning of 2005 and thereafter. The use of both stock options and restricted stock, along with the new retention requirements, aligns executive compensation very closely to the performance of the Company by providing an incentive for the executives to increase the value of its stock above present levels. The use of restricted stock aligns executive and shareholder interests regardless of the increase or decrease in the market value of the Company's stock. The Board of Directors continues to encourage executives to achieve and retain significant direct ownership of Company stock in addition to these retention requirements.

CEO Compensation

Mr. Sambataro's base salary as CEO was $535,000 for 2005, which was set by an employment contract entered into in December 2004, represented a $35,000 increase over the base salary in his prior contract entered into in 2001 and was consistent with the factors described above generally used in setting base salaries for the Company's executive officers. Under the short-term incentive plan described above, the target bonus for the CEO in 2005 was 45% of base compensation if net after-tax, pre-bonus earnings for the Company increased 35% or more above the same profit measure in the prior year, subject to a minimum threshold of 17.5% and a maximum cap of 43.75%. The CEO's bonus was subject to an individual performance multiple of 0.5 to 1.2 as determined by the Committee and approved by all independent directors as well as the overall limitation of 50% of base salary. Based on a 70.8% increase in net after-tax earnings in 2005, Mr. Sambataro's short-term incentive was capped at $267,500. In December 2005 Mr. Sambataro received an award of vested stock options for 55,970 shares which was valued at $300,000 using a Black-Scholes method. The award was made in recognition of Mr. Sambataro's long-term service to the Company over a nine year period. This award was in lieu of the normal award under the long-term executive equity plan described above. All aspects of the CEO's compensation were reviewed and approved by the Committee and the Board of Directors in executive sessions without participation by the CEO.

In 2006 Mr. Sambataro will continue to receive his base salary at the same rate until May 17, 2006 which is the effective date of the promotion of Mr. Cooper as the new CEO. His short-term incentive for 2006 will be determined in the same manner as other executive officers, but any pay out for 2006 will be prorated. Mr. Sambataro will not be eligible to receive any equity award for 2006.

Other Information: Tax Law Limits on Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the Company's ability to deduct certain compensation over $1 million paid to the named executives unless such compensation is based on performance objectives meeting certain criteria or is otherwise excluded from the limitation. The Committee believes that it is generally in the Company's best interests to comply with Section 162(m) and expects that most of the compensation paid to the named executives will either be under the $1 million limit, eligible for exclusion (such as stock options), or based on qualified performance objectives. However, notwithstanding this general policy, the Committee also believes that there may be circumstances in which the Company's interests are best served by maintaining flexibility in the way compensation is provided, whether or not compensation is fully deductible under Section 162(m). Accordingly, it is possible that some compensation paid to named executive officers may not be deductible, such as the restricted stock portion of the long-term executive equity incentive plan to the extent that the aggregate of non-exempt compensation exceeds the $1 million level.

Audit Committee Report⁴

The Audit Committee is comprised of three independent members of the Board of Directors. Members of the Audit Committee currently include Mr. Grinstein, who chairs the committee, and Mr. Sullivan and Ms. McKibbin. The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that each member of the committee is "financially literate" under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, and that Mr. Grinstein and Mr. Sullivan are each an "audit committee financial expert" as such term is defined in Item 401 of Regulation S-K.

The Audit Committee met eight times in 2005. Over the course of these meetings, the Audit Committee met with the Company's chief executive officer, chief financial officer, other senior members of the finance department, the director of internal audit, the Company's outside counsel and independent auditors. These meetings included private executive sessions between the Audit Committee and the Company's independent auditors and director of internal audit, respectively. During its meetings, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed, among other things:

- the status of and any significant issues in connection with the quarterly reviews and annual audit of the Company's financial statements;

3 Mr. Tall became a member of the Compensation Committee (replacing Ms. McKibbin) in January 2006.

4 The report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material," or to be "filed" with the Commission or subject to Regulation 14A or 14C, or to the liabilities of section 18 of the Exchange Act, except to the extent that the Company specifically requests that the report be treated as soliciting material or specifically incorporates it by reference into a document filed under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

- the Company's annual internal and external audit plans and the internal and external staffing resources available to carry out the Company's audit plans;
 - the Company's significant accounting policies and judgmental accrual policies;
 - the Company's progress toward evaluating and documenting its internal controls pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002;
 - the impact of new accounting pronouncements;
 - the impact of recent developments in corporate governance; and,
 - current tax matters affecting the Company.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 30, 2005. This discussion included, among other things:

- critical accounting policies and practices used in the preparation of the Company's financial statements;
- significant items involving management's estimates and judgments, including workers compensation reserves, allowances for doubtful accounts, and legal and regulatory contingencies;
- alternative treatments within GAAP of the Company's annual financial information;
- the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives on the Company's financial statements, including the adoption of significant accounting pronouncements;
- any significant audit adjustments proposed by the independent auditors and management's response; and,
- confirmation that there were no matters of significant disagreement between management and the independent auditors arising during the audit.

In addition to the meetings discussed above, the Audit Committee, or its chairman, reviewed with management and the Company's independent auditors the Company's financial statements for each quarter of 2005 prior to the quarterly release of earnings.

The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The Audit Committee has received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Independence Standards Board, and has discussed with the independent accountants the independent accountants' independence.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the Company's principal auditor is compatible with maintaining auditor independence and has concluded that such services are compatible with maintaining independence of the auditors. Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee believes that PricewaterhouseCoopers has been objective and impartial in conducting the 2005 audit.

In performing all of the functions described above, the Audit Committee acts in an oversight capacity. In that role, the Audit Committee relies primarily on the work and assurances of our management, which has the primary responsibility for our financial statements and reports, and of the independent auditors who, in their report, express an opinion on the conformity of our annual financial statements to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Robert J. Sullivan

Employment Agreements

On December 15, 2004, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Joseph P. Sambataro, Jr. The employment agreement had an initial term of three years but will terminate on May 17, 2006, the effective date of the election of the new CEO. The employment agreement provides for the payment to Mr. Sambataro of an annual base salary of $535,000 which will be prorated in 2006. Mr. Sambataro is also entitled to receive bonuses and equity awards at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors commensurate with Mr. Sambataro's performance and the overall performance of the Company and will be prorated in 2006. The employment agreement also provided that all unvested options, unvested restricted stock shares, and any and all other unvested executive incentive awards will vest on the selection of a new CEO. The employment agreement also contains customary confidentiality, non-competition, nonsolicitation and indemnification provisions. Mr. Sambataro will continue to serve as a member of the Board of Directors and will receive compensation as a non-employee director as described under the heading "Compensation of Directors" on page 15 which will be prorated in 2006 and will not include any equity or option grant.

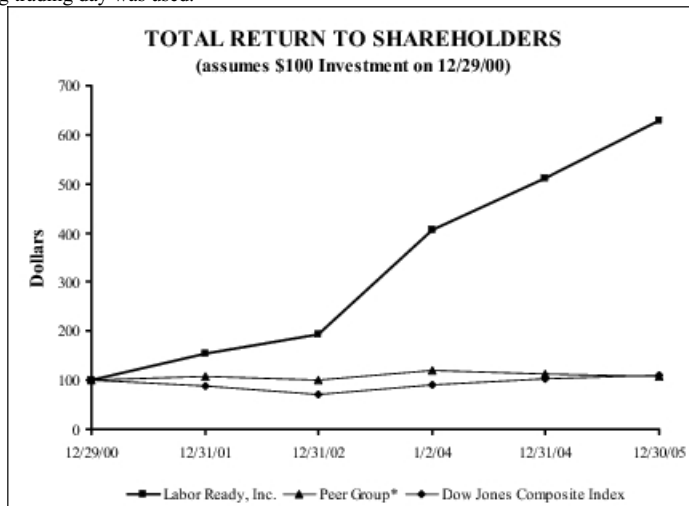

On February 16, 2006, the Company entered into a new executive employment agreement with Mr. Cooper that replaces the employment agreement between Mr. Cooper and the Company dated March 23, 2005. The new employment agreement is effective as of May 17, 2006 and has a term of three years, unless terminated earlier or extended in accordance with the terms of the employment agreement. The employment agreement provides for the payment to Mr. Cooper of an annual base salary of $425,000 which will be prorated in 2006. Mr. Cooper is also entitled to receive bonuses at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors commensurate with Mr. Cooper's performance and the overall performance of the Company. In recognition of his promotion Mr. Cooper will also receive a grant on May 17, 2006 of 10,000 shares of restricted stock vesting equally over a four year period. If the Company terminates the employment of Mr. Cooper without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or if Mr. Cooper terminates his employment with Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement), then Mr. Cooper will be entitled to receive separation payments at a rate equal to his base salary at the time of termination through the end of the term of the employment agreement or for a period of 12 months, whichever is greater. In the event that the Company terminates Mr. Cooper's employment without Cause or if Mr. Cooper terminates his employment with Good Reason, then all unvested options, unvested restricted stock shares, and any and all other unvested executive incentive awards will vest on the termination date. The employment agreement also contains confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation, indemnification and assignment of invention provisions.

On March 21, 2005, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Gary North, a Regional Vice President. The employment agreement provides that Mr. North will continue employment with the Company for no specific term and with compensation and position subject to future adjustment by the Board of Directors based on recommendations of the Compensation Committee. The employment agreement provides for the payment to Mr. North of an annual base salary of $250,000. If the Company terminates Mr. North's employment without Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or if Mr. North terminates his employment with Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement), then Mr. North will be entitled to receive (i) separation payments for twelve months from the employment termination date at the base monthly salary then currently in effect and (ii) continued vesting for twelve months past the employment termination date of any previously awarded stock options or other equity awards, provided that all vested awards shall be exercised prior to the end of such twelve-month period. The employment agreement also contains confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation, indemnification and assignment of invention provisions.
